3,000 Attend Dedication Of Woolson Statue As Memorial To GAR Here On Wednesday

Three thousand men and women from throughout the nation gathered at Ziegler's Grove Wednesday afternoon to dedicate a statue to "the common citizen soldier, the men who gained no great glory, but did their duty for their nation and then returned to live their humble lives as good citizens of their nation."

Col. Frederic Gilbert Bauer, Ridge-wood, N. J., national commander-in-chief of the Sons of Union Veterans, added: "We dedicate today a statue of Albert Woolson. He was the last of the Grand Army of the Republic and he was also the son of a veteran, for he entered the Union Army after his father had been killed while serving with the Union forces. As a son of a veteran, he was national honorary commander-in-chief of the Sons of Union Veterans."

"This statue is in many ways unique. Usually statues are dedicated to great and noble men, great military leaders, or men who have given their lives for their country."

To Simple, Humble Soldier
"Here we have a statue of a man who was none of these things. He was a simple, humble youth who, when his country needed men, went into the army. He never rose to high rank nor did he have the opportunity to do any outstanding deed. When he had completed his service he returned to his home seeking no great position, he worked hard all of his life in humble posts, and rounded out a great span of years as a simple, humble, good citizen of the United States."

"We note that the front of the statue does not bear his name. It bears the wording 'In memory of the Grand Army of the Republic.' 'Comrade Albert Woolson symbolizes all the great virtues of the common, ordinary citizen, the citizen who becomes a soldier and then returns to ordinary life.'"

Presented To U. S.

Mrs. Lenore D. Glas, San Jose, Calif., national president of the Auxiliary of the Sons of Union Veterans, made the formal dedication of the statue and presented it to the U. S. Department of the Interior "to keep through the ages that it might be an inspiration to generations yet to come." Elvird T. Scoyen, associate director of the U. S. National Park Service, accepted for the department. Dr. J. Walter Coleman, superintendent of the Gettysburg National Park, told of plans of the local park office to "improve the setting for this magnificent statue. We hope to put in a walk about it, and of course do landscaping and make the surroundings as beautiful as the statue itself."

High praise was given the National Auxiliary of the Sons of Union Veterans by all speakers "for carrying out the great work of raising the funds and placing this statue here."

Miss Celeste D. Gentieu, Wilmington, Del., past president of the auxiliary and chairman of the National GAR Memorial Fund of the Auxiliary, gave the welcome and also, with Chester S. Shriver, Gettysburg R. 4, state commander of the SUV, unveiled the monument.

Memorial To Our Fathers

C. LeRoy Stoudt, Reading, past national commander-in-chief of the SUV and chairman of the dedication committee, termed "this the happiest day in Miss Gentieu's life. She had done a magnificent job and today marks the culmination of a work begun more than a score of years ago, when she was named as chairman of the Auxiliary GAR memorial fund. Through her efforts the money was raised, the statue was constructed and placed here."

Miss Gentieu termed the statue "a memorial to your fathers, to my father, to grandfathers and great-grandfathers of you men and women gathered here." Miss Gentieu's father, Pierre Gentieu, a native of France, fought in the Civil War and was a member of the GAR.

Major General U. S. Grant 3rd, grandson of the famed Civil War commander-in-chief, was the principal speaker.

"Today we have just dedicated on this historic battlefield this memorial to the Grand Army of the Republic, in the image of its last survivor, our comrade, Albert Woolson. He has but recently been taken from our midst and was with us at our encampment in Duluth. He will sit here through the ages, the last of the 'boys in blue,' a symbol in bronze of our affection for him and our homage to the Grand Army that saved our nation from disintegration."

"We Sons of Union Veterans and all other organizations affiliated with the Grand Army owe special thanks to our ever thoughtful and beloved Auxiliary for initiating and carrying out successfully this project."

Sheads, member of the Gettysburg High School faculty, relate stories of "old Gettysburg" and saw a fashion show depicting styles of another day.

The affair was the kick-off of the many events planned to celebrate the Sesquicentennial of the borough of Gettysburg.

Mr. Sheads, who said "I am going to talk about some interesting persons, places and events of one of the most historic towns in the United States," gave the biography of James Gettys, founder of Gettysburg.

Interesting Persons

"He was a man of brains and determination, of noble character and resourcefulness," he said. "He was the foremost citizen of the new county of Adams. The prevailing and predominating tone of this man's life during the quarter of a century between the death of his father, Samuel Gettys, in 1790, and his own death in 1815, was a public spiritedness, not alone for sake of self, but for the advancement and good of his county and town."

"There were countless other interesting and distinguished persons living in Gettysburg during its formative period," he said. "To list a few would include such personalities as Dr. Samuel Agnew, practicing physician in Gettysburg in the early 19th century and powerful advocate of vaccination as a preventative of smallpox; the Honorable James Cooper, the only United States senator Adams County ever had; and the remarkable Rev. Alexander Dobbin, minister and educator whose home still stands on Steinwehr Ave., the oldest building in town."

Soldiers' Orphans' Home

There were also Robert G. Harper, versatile editor of Gettysburg's first newspaper; the Honorable Thaddeus Stevens, lawyer, politician, and savior of the Public School System of Pennsylvania; the Honorable David Willis, lawyer, educator, and President Lincoln's host during his sojourn in our town; Dr. Samuel

YOUNG BROTHER ACCIDENTALLY SHOT IN THIGH

The anger of a 15-year-old Gardner R. D. youth at a shotgun which failed to properly eject cartridges led to the wounding of his nine-year-old brother Wednesday afternoon about 4:45 o'clock.

State police said Daniel Kauffman, kept home from school for the day because of a cold, spent most of the afternoon working on his shotgun. When his effort failed of success he pushed the weapon and it fell to the floor, discharged, and the pellets went through the right thigh of his nine-year-old brother, Charles Kauffman. The two are children of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kauffman, near Peach Glen.

Police said Daniel Kauffman then carried his brother approximately three-fourths of a mile to the home of Mervin Showers, Gardner R. D., the nearest neighbors. Mr. Showers took the boy to the Warner Hospital where he is reported in a "satisfactory" condition today.

Gun Was A Gift

Police said Daniel Kauffman's grandmother had given him the 410 gauge shotgun about two years ago. The mechanism had failed to operate properly recently and Daniel decided to spend the day repairing the gun. He worked first in the kitchen and then had gone to a porch where the accident occurred. His brother was standing about 14 feet away. The pellets made a four-inch pattern in his right leg. Police said the child was given a blood transfusion at the hospital.

Police said surgeons could not immediately tell how serious the wound might be pending examination to determine how badly affected the leg is internally.

The father was at work at the time of the accident and the mother was in the house.

A rousing ovation was given Vice President Nixon with the crowd on its feet applauding and cheering. He told the audience he believes the election of President Eisenhower and a Republican Congress is in the best

A beaming President Eisenhower who told a cheering throng of Republican leaders at his farm Wednesday evening, "Ladies and gentlemen, I feel fine," formally launched his campaign for reelection to the presidency with a plea for an energetic registration campaign as the first step.

"A voter without a ballot is like a soldier without a bullet," he said. "With all the other ammunition you have, you can go to the voters with a grin on your face. Don't underestimate the value of a grin. Pessimism never won a battle."

The famous Eisenhower grin was evident throughout the 90 minutes of speech-making after a rousing welcome to President and Mrs. Eisenhower and Vice President and Mrs. Richard M. Nixon.

Nixon himself came in for high praise from the President.

"No man in the history of the United States has had such careful preparation for the office of the vice presidency and no man could be better qualified if it becomes necessary for him to take over those duties," the President said.

Important Assignments

He told of important assignments "for four solid years" for Mr. Nixon and "his success of those assignments is a tribute to his dedication and his capability." He mentioned Nixon's many trips abroad "where he has gained friends for the United States."

Radiating good health and enthusiasm, the President told the GOP leaders he was answering a question he had been asked many times in the last few weeks: "I feel fine!"

The President indicated he intends to lay stress on his administration's policies and hopes for the future. Vice President Nixon answered the Democrats. The vice president spoke immediately before President Eisenhower and undertook to "set the record straight" on campaign charges hurled by the opposition.

Four Fold Objective

Speaking informally and referring only at intervals to a typed outline of his talk that had been delivered to newsmen in advance, the President listed a four-point goal that "will turn a campaign into a crusade and a platform into a cause."

"Our objective should be four-fold: To arouse in the American people a consciousness of all that is at stake in this election and of their ability and their responsibility in making sure that we stay on the straight road of prosperity, progress and peace; to generate in them the conviction that our party, the party of the future, is best fitted for the management of our government because of its principles and its record and because of the candidates it presents from local councilmen to the national level; to ignite a zeal to make converts among their neighbors and to fortify their determination that this year they will register in time and get others to register, to vote themselves and persuade others to vote."

Cites Lincoln

He referred to a definition of the duty of government given by Abraham Lincoln. He discussed what the Republican party stands for and drew applause when he said: "The Republican party stands for thrift and integrity in government and against centralization of power in big government. But it believes that government must neither pinch pennies where the security of the nation is involved nor weakly compromise principle under pressure however massive or powerful they may be."

He referred several times to the importance of getting the votes of "discerning Democrats" and said one had shaken hands with him at the picnic Wednesday. "The first order of business for all of us everywhere must be the greatest registration of our history—in numbers and in percentage of potential voters."

He continued: "Write off no county, no state as hopeless, for victory is the product of nationwide effort. We belong to a great party at work from Puget Sound to Miami and from Maine to Texas." There the President stopped and with a grin, said: "There's that word again."

Then he departed from his prepared talk again to tell how he felt about the Maine election results. He compared the Maine setback to the Battle of Kasserine Pass in North Africa. "After that no troops were caught napping on a hillside because they thought the enemy would not attack at 2 a.m. Our losses in that battle were due to surprise and green troops. Afterwards we were real soldiers. I think maybe Maine has a lesson for us."

The President was interrupted 22 times by rounds of applause and cheers.

URGES WINDOW DISPLAYS HERE

The Gettysburg Retail Merchants Association Wednesday afternoon issued an "urgent recommendation" that the store keepers of the town take part in the borough sesquicentennial by putting in special windows and by "dressing up" in period costume for Merchants Day, Monday.

President David Blocher, following a meeting with the board of directors, said "all indications are that most merchants will take part in the events" and noted that a number of windows have already been placed, including one at Dougherty and Hartley's which contains a picture of the store as it appeared many years ago.

Numerous other stores and merchants are planning windows. The Adams County Republican Women filled the windows at John Basehore's insurance office with displays of old time articles. The Ramer Insurance agency this morning was placing a special window display of antiques. The Adams County Associated Arts and Crafts Guild has filled one window at the Philip Biele Insurance office and the other window is to be filled by the Warner Hospital Auxiliary.

Blocher added that "those are but a few of the special windows planned through the town. We also believe that a large number of the merchants and their clerks will be in costume Monday for Merchants Day."

Rock Creek Painting Is Displayed Here

A painting of "Foote's Pond" on Rock Creek — back in the days when Rock Creek was a popular fishing and swimming place — is on display in the Arts and Crafts Guild Sesquicentennial exhibit in the Philip Biele Insurance office window on Baltimore St. The display is one of a number being placed by stores and organizations today in connection with the Sesqui.

The painting, one of a number of items in the Associated Arts and Crafts Guild exhibit, is owned by Mrs. M. K. Eckert, Springs Ave. Formerly it was the property of the A. B. Kurtz family which resided in the Wills House many years ago.

The oil painting, whose artist is unknown, shows the cabin of Pete Foote, who a century ago sold bait to fishermen and so popular was the area along Rock Creek near Foote's cottage that it was known as "Foote's Pond." The picture shows a Van Orsdel youngster purchasing bait to begin fishing.

3 ASSUMPSIT ACTIONS FILED

Pitzer Brothers Battified Service Station today filed an action in assumpsit in the county court claiming Rufus W. Weaver, Baltimore St., trading as Weaver Cabs, owes the Pitzers $5,436.46 for gasoline, oil, tires, etc. secured for the Weaver cabs since 1933.

The action, filed for Pitzer Brothers by Attorney Eugene R. Hartman, lists the plaintiffs as C. David Pitzer, Gettysburg R. 2, and Relda Pitzer, 27 Steinwehr Ave., as administratrix of the estate of Frank L. Pitzer, deceased.

According to the action, Weaver owed Pitzer Brothers $36.06 on June, 1933, in his Weaver's Cabs operation. Twenty-seven exhibits are attached to the action showing various purchases of gasoline, oil, tires, etc., extending through July, 1955. The total of the bills was $5,524.40 and the action claims that only $97.94 had been paid on the bills.

Other Actions Filed
The action was one of three filed with the prothonotary by Attorney Hartman.

Another is an assumpsit action brought by Dauphin Electrical Supplies Co., Harrisburg, against Charles A. Karas, N. Stratton St., trading as Keystone Radio Service. In that action the Harrisburg concern claims Karas owes it $520. It also lists various bills and credits since January 5, 1955, for electrical supplies provided by Keystone Radio Service. The bills and credits indicate that the original bills were about $700 and that about $200 had been paid on account.

The third action filed by Attorney Hartman is an assumpsit proceedings brought by Brown Stove Works Inc., Cleveland, Tenn., against R. K. Neiderer, McSherrytown, claiming Neiderer owes the Tennessee concern $630.14 for ranges, etc. Exhibits attached show a number of purchases and payments leaving the balance sought by the plaintiffs.

RUSH FOR EXIT VISAS AT SAID

By JAMES M. LONG
PORT SAID, Egypt (AP) — A rush for exit visas was on today at this Suez Canal terminus, with indications that only half a dozen foreign pilots would remain on the job after tomorrow night.

Word got out overnight that the only sure way pilots and the 400 other foreign employees on the Suez Canal could save their jobs for the future would be to quit now.

This seeming paradox was explained in this way: Foreign employees were told the Suez Canal Co. has promised to contact them as soon as they quit. It would enroll them at the same pay and work conditions in a new "international setup" intended to take over operation if the Egyptian management fails.

Apparently, most foreign employees are convinced that Egypt will be unable to continue to operate the waterway. One obvious reason: There would not be enough pilots left after midnight tomorrow to keep the present traffic of nearly 50 ships per day moving.

AP REPORTER IS OVERCOME BY FRIED CHICKEN

By ED CREAUGH
The Associated Press
Man, that sure was magnificent fried chicken.
Golden brown it was, like an autumn sunset. And on the inside tender as a young girl's love.
Oh, sure, there were speeches, too. By President Eisenhower and a lot of other people. But you can hear speeches any time. It isn't often that you get Adams County type chicken.
The home county sacrificed 650 of its prize, corn-fed, year-old fowl for the President's get-together with 1,000 Republican workers in a big circus tent on the Eisenhower farm Wednesday.

Some other items on the menu were: 85 pounds of home baked beans; 12 huge roasts of beef; 20 hams, weighing in at 18 to 20 pounds apiece; cake with blue rosebuds and a pink Republican phant on the icing.

Mamie Serves Ike
Dwight D. Eisenhower took one affectionate look at the long tables heaped with goodies and lit into them like a man who'd never had a tummyache in his life.

His wife helped him, ladling beans onto the President's plate.

His doctor, Maj. Gen. Howard M. Snyder, who's had the President on a diet, looked the other way.

Actually, the fried chicken had been cleared in advance with Snyder by Henry M. Scharf, the Hotel Gettysburg manager who catered the affair.

"Won't hurt him a bit," the doctor said.

Eisenhower took the doctor at his word and downed all the fried chicken he could manage in the crush of well-wishers who wanted to pump his hand.
He seemed to be demonstrating, along with a robust appetite, something he'd told his crowd of cheering guests a few minutes earlier — with reference to the two serious illnesses he has suffered in the White House.

"I Feel Fine"
Carefully and exuberantly spacing his words, the President declared: "I . . . feel . . . fine!"

It was muggy in the big brown tent with the gay pennants fluttering from the top. Women who came in fall costumes fanned themselves as the temperature mounted and the metallic blast of the loudspeakers droned on.

But signs of distress vanished when the host, who spoke last, made an important announcement.

"Let's," said the President, in substance, "eat."

Man, that fried chicken. Just a trace of sauteur flavor. Just a—
Oh, why do we stand here talking? I'm going to break out that drumstick I pretended I was taking home for the dog.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Re. James Roosevelt will be able to have his three children visit him in his own company of Roosevelt's bride Irene. As a result of the court ruling, James Jr., 10, Michael, 9, and Anna Eleanor, 8, can visit their father's home on alternate weekends while he is in Los Angeles and on certain holidays. Heretofore, Roosevelt's visits with his children have been permitted only at their mother's home.

Milwaukee Regains NL Lead In Thriller Over Brooklyn 8-7; Cincinnati Beaten By Giants 8-0

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press
Milwaukee's Braves call it "the biggest yet."
The Brooklyn Dodgers kiss it off with a "so what?"
They both could be right about that humdrum of a comeback 8-7 victory the Braves grabbed from the Dodgers at Ebbets Field yesterday, regaining undisputed possession of first place in the National League race.
If any club was hurt by the decision, it was Cincinnati. The third-place Redlegs fell three games behind while being held to just three singles by Johnny Antonelli in an 8-0 loss to the New York Giants.

Cubs Beat Bucs
The Chicago Cubs defeated Pittsburgh 3-0 in the only other NL game scheduled.
The New York Yankees and the Kansas City Athletics, walloping three between them, erased the home run record set in 1950 at 973 as the A's beat the league leaders 7-4.
Early Wynn helped set the mark, slugging his first home run of the season for his 17th victory as second-place Cleveland beat Baltimore 2-1.

Boston Third Now
Boston took third place from Chicago, defeating the White Sox 4-1. Detroit made it six in a row, beating Washington 3-2.
Billy Bruton, a .268 disappointment with only 46 runs batted in for the Braves, and Joe Adcock, a regular Dodger tormentor, drove in five runs between them as Bob Buhl, one of 11 pitchers in the game, came back in relief after losing 4-2 Tuesday night to gain his 17th victory.
Bruton's eighth-inning single cracked a 7-all tie, driving in Adcock to beat reliever Roger Craig. His two-run triple shelled 23-game winner Don Newcombe in a four-run second inning, after the Dodgers had taken a 3-0 lead in the first while knocking out Lew (18-9) Burdette.

Adcock's 37th home run, with a man on, broke a 4-all tie in the sixth. Roy Campanella hit his 18th for the Braves and Del Crandall smacked No. 15 for the Braves, who wound up with a 12-0 edge in the season series between the two clubs.
Antonelli, beaten four times previously by the Redlegs, struck out three and walked none while facing just 29 men for his 16th victory. Jack Brandt and Darryl Spencer homered for the Giants, Spencer's a two-run, inside-the-park job, to beat Joe Nuxhall.
Sam Jones bagged the Bucs on four hits while the Cubs got eight off loser Vern Law and three relievers, one Walt Moryn's 22nd home run.

AL Record Of 974 Homers
Ex-Yankee Eddie Robinson drove in four runs for the A's and his homer gave the AL a record total of 974. It came off reliever Maury McDermott in the fifth inning and followed earlier shots by Yankee Hank Bauer and A's rookie Lou Skizas. Wally Burette, former Yankee farmhand, won it with six innings of shutout relief. Tom Sturdivant lost it.
Vic Wertz also homered for the Tribe, held to five hits by Hec Brown and Mike Fornieles, with Wynn's breaking a 1-1 tie. It was No. 28 for Wertz, a one-season high for the big guy who was hit by polo last year.

Boston, now half a game up on Chicago, rode in as Frank Sullivan tossed a five-hitter for his 13th victory. Jackie Jensen, with two RBIs, hit his 19th home run among Boston's 11 hits.
Two walks, one hit and an error scored a tie-breaking run for Detroit in the ninth inning, giving Billy Hoeltz his 18th triumph.

Fined For Fishing With Hand Grenades

CARSON, N.D. (AP)—A sailor home on leave was fined $50 for using hand grenades to catch fish in the Cannonball River, the state game and fish department reported.

Mike Volk told a game warden he threw three grenades into the river. Only two went off. The area was still roped off while authorities pondered how to dispose of the third.

CUMBERLAND WINS

Cumberland won its first game in the Bi-County Baseball League title playoffs by defeating Newville 6-3 Wednesday evening. Newville holds a 2-1 in the best-of-seven affair. The teams will resume action tonight at 5:45 at Newville.

SCHOLASTIC GRID POWERS GET MOVING

HARRISBURG (AP)—Eastern and central Pennsylvania powers move into action this weekend as scholastic football play his Pennsylvania in force.

All except a few of the 750 teams have games scheduled for the second week of the season with such powers as Williamsport, Carlisle, Wilkes-Barre G.A.R., Mahanoy Twp., and Bethlehem lining up for the first time.

Two eastern powerhouses, Allentown, winner over Pottsville last week, and Bethlehem, the favorite to cop Big Three honors, take on two Washington, D.C., squads at home.

Carlisle Opens
Bethlehem lines up against Eastern of Washington, a team Lebanon whipped last week, while Allentown takes on Washington Roosevelt.

Carlisle and Mahanoy Twp. will be seeking to extend their all-winning seasons from last year in opening games against Chief Logan and Shenandoah. Carlisle, South Penn champ, opens its league defense next week at Middletown.

Williamsport, co-champion last year, tests Keystone entry Sunbury, 38-0 loser to Lewistown last week.

Top Game In East

In the Wyoming Valley Conference, defending champ Wilkes-Barre G.A.R., a strong contender last year in the Eastern Conference's Northern Division, opens against Larksville, rated a good chance to upset the titlists. Larksville swamped Newport Twp. 32-0 last week.

Top game in the east pits Swoyersville, which played Eastern Conference defending champ Coal Twp. to a scoreless tie last week, against West Scranton, defending Northern Division champ, at Scranton West ran roughshod over Scranton Tech last week 25-6.

Elsewhere in the state, Alliquippa, defending WPIAL AA champ, will have its hands full when it meets Pittsburgh city champ Westinghouse, 6-0 victor over Donora last week. Alliquippa won 9 straight last year but was hurt by June graduations.

Double A Tilts
Seven double A league games highlight the weekend card in the conference where a loss or tie means elimination from title contention.

Top league games show Ellwood City against Butler, Connellsville against Washington and Donora and Connellsville each have one league win under their belts.

Other double A games show Sharon at Beaver Falls, Monongahela at Monessen, Trinity at Redstone and Har-Brack at New Hempfield. Redstone and Monessen were eliminated from title contention last week.

In other Eastern Conference games, Coal Twp. will attempt to improve its title hopes against Ashland while Old Forge, perennial contender in the Northern Division, takes on strong Duryea.

Corry Vs. Oil City
In the section II conference, Corry, last week's breaker of Warren's 17-game winning streak, goes after its second league win against Oil City. Franklin is at Warren and Meadville takes on Bradford, 6-0 winner over WPIAL entry Har-Brack last week.

The big games in the Western Conference feature Somerset at Bedford in a traditional rivalry, Lewistown at home against Bellefonte, State College at Lock Haven, and defending and undefeated co-champions Clearfield and Huntingdon meeting Jersey Shore at Mount Union.

Conestoga opens defense of its Ches-Mont league title against Bridgeport at home.

Action in the suburban Philadelphia A League doesn't begin until next week when Haverford is at Chester. Defending champ Lower Merion holder of the longest major all-winning streak in the state at 23, opens against Ridley Twp. Sept. 28.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

HITTING — Billy Bruton and Joe Adcock, Braves, drove in five runs between them in 8-7 victory over Dodgers that gave Milwaukee an undisputed National League lead again. Bruton tripled for two and singled Adcock home with the clincher. Adcock got his 37th home run, his 13th against Brooklyn to tie the league record against one club.

PITCHING — Johnny Antonelli, Giants, stopped hard-hitting Redlegs with three singles, striking out three and walking none while facing just 29 men in 8-0 decision for his 16th victory.

There are 43,309 foreign citizens now studying in U. S. hospitals and universities under the student exchange program.

Delone Rules Favorite In Annual Game With Warriors Here Friday

Gettysburg High School's young football squad will undoubtedly pin its hopes on an aerial attack when it meets Delone Catholic here Friday evening at 8 o'clock as the Warriors inaugurate their home campaign.

Delone's vaunted line, loaded with experienced lads, will probably prove very tough for the local runners and Coach Howard Shoemaker had indicated plenty of passes will be attempted.

However, the Warriors are in top physical and mental shape and may give the highly favored Squires stiffer opposition than expected. Last week Delone walloped Hanover 28-7 while the Warriors bowed at Westminster 12-0.

Two defensive changes are scheduled to be made by Coach Howard Shoemaker. Roy Goldsmith, 170, sophomore, will occupy an end position while Ken Mummert, 133, junior, will be at halfback on the defense.

No change is anticipated in the starting offensive squad which will include John Wheeler and Elmer Thomas, ends; John Fissel, Albert Poole, tackles; Ralph Heffner and Bob Nelson, guards; Bobby Hess, center; Earl Little, quarterback; Kenny Keefe and John Sauter, halfbacks, and Rex Baltzley, fullback.

Delone's fine performance in outclassing Hanover has stamped it as one of the best squads ever to represent the McSherrystown school and the big factor has been its line where Coach Alex Bell has five veterans.

Phil Staub, 190, and Joe Staub, 185, ends; Captain Tom Smith, 205, tackle, who was chosen to the Central Penn Catholic All-Star team last year; Joe Jenkins, 170, guard, and Jerry Eline, 155, tackle, are the veterans on the front line.

Local Delone Stars
Three Gettysburg lads loom prominently in the Delone backfield where all regulars from last year were graduated. They include Richard Hemler, left half, who will be among the starters, John Gastley and Bucky Washington who are first line replacements.

Other backfield starters, who saw action a year ago as reservists are Larry Hockensmith, quarterback; Pat O'Brien, halfback, and Earl Mann, fullback. All turned in a fine performance against Hanover.

Friday's game will be the 16th between the schools. Delone holds the advantage with nine wins against six setbacks.

Littlestown Seeks Second Win Against Big Spring On Bolts' Field Friday At 8

A newcomer in varsity football, the Big Spring Jointure of Newville, will provide the opposition for Littlestown High School in the Bolts' second game of the season Friday night at 8 o'clock on Memorial Field, Littlestown.

Last year Big Spring played three practice games with area junior high schools and failed to score a point.

Frank Sudak, coach of the Bulldogs, is anticipating a rough campaign for his charges who are certain to be very green in the way of football tactics. However, Sudak believes his squad and will give a good account of themselves throughout the campaign.

Set For Tough Game
Wib Gobrecht, Littlestown's highly successful mentor, said today he is getting his squad primed for a tough game. He added, "They may be good and again they may be poor. We know little about them."

The Thunderbolts got off to a flying start last Friday night by thoroughly outclassing Shippensburg for a 12-0 decision.

Coach Gobrecht revealed he may be forced to alter his lineup slightly due to two boys nursing injuries. Ronnie Crouse, 160, back, will probably be replaced by Tony Maitland, 140, senior. Crouse will probably be able to do the punting. The other injured player is Allen King, 140, defensive guard. Bob Little, freshman, another 140-pounder, is listed to replace King.

Another change may be made in the forward wall where Joe Wood, 150-pound sophomore, may take over the end position of Mike Cookson, 150.

Probable Starters
Littlestown's opening lineup is expected to include the following: Ends, Wood or Cookson, and Joe Klunk; tackles, Terry Dayhoff, who will play full time, and Don Sell; guards, John Shomper and Ken Koontz; center, Albert Snyder.

Quarterback, Gene Miller; halfbacks, Jack Busbey and Maitland, and fullback, Kelly Pottorff.

The parent body of the harness racing sport named Allan M. MacLeod of Chestnut Hill, Mass., near Boston, as its special liaison representative and he assumed his duties today.

Officials of the USTA admit there has been some "bickering" between the organization, the New York Racing Commission, and operators of some of the country's pari-mutuel tracks, and they believe MacLeod is the man to calm the troubled waters.

School Boards To Vote On South Penn Participation In Post-Season Playoffs

School boards of the South Penn Conference will be the ruling body in determining whether conference athletic teams will continue to participate in PIAA post-season playoffs as the result of action taken Wednesday evening at the annual fall conference meet held at Allentown, Pa., November 28, in Gettysburg.

By a 5-3 vote, a resolution presented by Ralph I. Shockey, Chambersburg, was approved. The resolution reads: "The consensus among South Penn principals is that we recommend to school boards that they adopt a policy of abolishing playoffs beyond the South Penn Conference level except that where there is no league play, competition will end with regularly scheduled games."

Roll Call Of Voting
Gettysburg, Chambersburg, Middletown, Waynesboro and Shippensburg voted for the resolution while Hanover, Hershey and Mechanicsburg opposed. Carlisle abstained.

The resolution followed a long two-hour discussion on the subject which was the result of several meetings of principals during the past year who generally voiced the opinion that post-season playoffs consume too much of the students' time.

Results of the polling of school boards will be made at the next meeting of the conference to be held Wednesday, November 28, in Gettysburg.

SAXTON LOSES BY TKO IN 9TH TO C. BASILIO

By MURRAY ROSE
SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—Carmen Basilio, apparently as tough and destructive as ever, wore the welterweight crown again today after annihilating Johnny Saxton "for the sweetest win of my life."

"This was the one I wanted to win more than any other," said the craggy-faced, 29-year-old Basilio after his technical knockout in 1:31 of the ninth round over the cocky, 26-year-old defending champion in War Memorial Auditorium last night.

"I beat him in Chicago and got robbed. This was my answer. If he wants to fight me again, I'm willing. I fight for money. I'll fight Ray Robinson too for the middleweight title if Saxton has had enough. I agreed to give Saxton a return fight and he can have it anywhere but in Chicago."

Even with his lopsided triumph last night, Carmen still is burning over the unanimous but controversial decision which Saxton scored over him in Chicago last March 14 for the title.

"I want the fight and I'll beat him the next time," said Saxton through swollen lips. A white bandage covered the left side of his mouth where nine stitches were required to sew up a wide long gash that had spurled blood during the one-sided fray.

"I fought his fight — not mine," the dethroned New Yorker said bitterly. "The booing of the crowd upset me. Instead of boxing him like I did the last time and like I planned to do again, I went out and slugged with him. I wanted to show those fans. Next time I'll fight for Johnny Saxton and win my way."

Looked Good 2 Rounds

Gaunt and with his ribs showing through his taut skin, the 146½-pound local pride took charge in the third round with a slashing body and head attack that had the sleek New Yorker bloody, reeling and helpless in the ninth round when referee Al Berli halted the massacre. Saxton had not been down, but he was heading for the canvas, so relentless was Basilio's furious assault.

Looking perfectly conditioned at 145½, Saxton was only in contention for the first two rounds when he surprised the near capacity crowd of 8,546 and countless television viewers by meeting Basilio punches. He drew blood from Carmen's nose and the fans cheered the unexpected early fireworks from the usually back-peddaling jabber.

Favorite Faded
In the third Basilio started to take his toll of the 7-5 favorite with his strength-sapping lefts and rights to the body and his switch-jolts to the head. In the fourth, the rout was on. Saxton began to bleed from the mouth and near the end of the round, he was staggered by a long left and right to the jaw. The cool, poised Basilio was in complete command after that.

Basilio's share of the record Syracuse gross gate of $134,039 (net $117,067) and the $75,000 radio-TV pot was $37,662. Saxton, collecting 40 per cent to Basilio's 20, earned $75,324.

USTA Takes Action To End "Bickering"

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The U.S. Trotting Assn. moved today to eliminate friction with various state racing commissions and pari-mutuel track operators.

The parent body of the harness racing sport named Allan M. MacLeod of Chestnut Hill, Mass., near Boston, as its special liaison representative and he assumed his duties today.

Officials of the USTA admit there has been some "bickering" between the organization, the New York Racing Commission, and operators of some of the country's pari-mutuel tracks, and they believe MacLeod is the man to calm the troubled waters.

Biglerville Gridders Make Debut Under Faulkner At Shippensburg Friday Night

HARVIE WARD SETS TOUGH PACE IN FOURTH

LAKE FOREST, Ill. (AP)—Defending champion Harvie Ward, one down after 15 holes of his fourth-round match in the National Amateur golf championship, was lining up a difficult 15-foot putt when Billy Joe Patton whispered:

"Right here, and on the next two holes, is where you'll learn the difference between a champion and a golfer."

Ward imperturbably stroked his putt into the cup and his opponent, 20-year-old Frank Boynton of Orlando, Fla., jabbed at a four-footer and missed. Patton whispered again: "See what I meant?"

A Conceded Deuce
On the next hole Ward poked a four iron shot off the tee within a foot and a half from the pin and won with a conceded deuce after Boynton had three-putted from across the green. And the Florida collegian, who had been three up after the first five holes, saw his last hope vanish with a shot that went into a trap on the 18th.

The roll call of beaten favorites in yesterday's two rounds left the committee, which has been screening prospects for the Americas Cup team matches, in quite a quandary.

Beaten Favorites
There was Ken Venturi, sensation of the Masters and Open this year, who bowed to 38-year-old Bob Roos in an all-San Francisco grudge match. Roos didn't last through the next round.

Then came ex-champions Dick Chapman and Willie Turnesa, former British titleholder Bob Sweeney, Intercollegiate champ Rick Jones and long-hitters Dave Smith, Frank Souchak and Doug Sanders in the third round.

The fourth brought the finish for Walker Coppers, Patton, Don Cherry and Dale Morey, husky Jim Tom Blair and young Mason Rudolph, who had shot about the best golf of the day in his morning match.

COLTS, 'SKINS MEET SUNDAY IN BALTIMORE

BALTIMORE—They were the two most improved teams in their divisions last year and come Sunday afternoon the Baltimore Colts and Washington Redskins will resume what has become one of the most colorful rivalries in the National Football League when they answer a 2 o'clock kickoff at Memorial Stadium.

The game will be nationally televised by CBS but blacked-out in the Baltimore, Washington and adjacent areas. Tickets are on sale at the Colts and Redskins offices and they also may be had at the stadium on Sunday afternoon.

The Redskins and Colts go into the contest with similar records—2 and 2—for pre-season play. Washington defeated Los Angeles and Green Bay while suffering setbacks from San Francisco and the Chicago Bears. The Colts split with Philadelphia in two meetings, topped Pittsburgh and lost to New York.

Baltimore will unveil its highly-prized fullback, Billy Vessels, former Oklahoma All-America and 1952 winner of the Heisman Trophy. Vessels' last appearance in a Colt uniform was in the Intra-Squad game on August 6 when he pulled a thigh muscle for the third time.

Photographic Highlights Of President Eisenhower's Rally On Wednesday

Eisenhower's

Centennial, 1856, 1956" with a large blue painted elephant in the center.

Dined With Friends

Directly in front of the podium was a large circular table with settings for twelve persons. Many thought the Eisenhowers and Nixons and other chieftains would eat at this table but they didn't. They sat with other friends at one end of the tent.

The dinner was served, cafeteria style, from eight long tables.

The press tent, in addition to the facilities for the reporters and photographers... and there were more than 200 present... also housed five telephone booths and 15 Western Union sending machines. Two trailer comfort stations were at one end of the large field. Six TV cameras sent the proceedings across the country.

Arrives Before Schedule

President Eisenhower arrived in his green colored jeep, with the fringe on top and named "Mamie and Ike," at 3:55 o'clock, more than a half hour before he was scheduled. He was greeted by a swarm of photographers who had a field day taking pictures of everything he tried to do.

Several hundred well-wishers also crowded around but they were kept in the distance by the cameramen.

Ike wore a light tan sports jacket, light tan trousers, brown shoes, white shirt with a brown and white tie. He looked in the pink of condition. His face was ruddy and he beamed and smiled and waved and shouted to many he recognized. Many he called by their first names.

The President was accompanied by Vice President Nixon and National Chairman Leonard Hall. They walked all around the tents, then walked through them, shaking many hands and then posed for a few pictures with Mrs. Nixon before the latter went to the farm house to meet Mrs. Eisenhower.

Visits Quail Preserve

From the press tent the President walked to his quail preserve and went through thigh-deep weeds to find the fowl.

Mamie and Mrs. Nixon arrived a little later. Both were all smiles and happy and were warmly received by the crowd. Mamie wore a melon and white colored dress with a white sweater over her shoulders. Mrs. Nixon wore a blue suit and green hat.

Mrs. Eisenhower looked like a happy schoolgirl and she beamed approvingly at many of the statements made by her illustrious husband. Although bright klieg lights played on the speakers' stand Mrs. Eisenhower readily recognized friends in the darkness beyond the lights. On one occasion she blew a kiss to one of her intimate friends.

The Gettysburg Fire Department was well represented with a contingent of firemen in event of any emergency. Headed by Donald McSherry, fire chief, the contingent had the rescue truck and the Mack truck at the farm. Firemen on duty were: Donald Staub, Frank Linn, Harold Hockensmith, Harvey Gastler, Eugene Sickles, C. Wm. Zhea, John DeHaas, Chester Small, Robert Redding, William G. Weaver, Cyril Staub, John Staub and Eneas Carr. One fire truck with its motor running and the rescue truck stood by.

Sumptuous Supper

It was a sumptuous "picnic" supper the Eisenhowers served to their guests with the help of the Hotel Gettysburg and its staff of 30. The menu included: Fried chicken, Adams County style, home baked beans, celery hearts and pickles, cold roast beef, cold baked ham, Swiss cheese, potato salad, coleslaw, homegrown tomatoes, pickled eggs, GOP ice cream and cake, coffee and assorted rolls.

The food included: 1,500 lbs. of chicken, 500 lbs. of beef, 250 lbs. of ham, 50 lbs. of cheese, 300 lbs. potato salad, 150 lbs. of coleslaw, 90 doz. eggs, 1,200 individual ice cream, 100 lbs. of coffee, 100 doz. rolls.

The staff served about 1,000 people including 700 guests, 200 press in addition to the Western Union staff, firemen, security and communications personnel.

Service to guests and most of collateral group was completed in one hour from the eight buffet tables.

The dining tent, where the speaking program had been presented, measured 40 by 180 feet and the press headquarters adjoining on the west side was almost as large.

As the President circulated among the tables, making slow progress because he was besieged by hand-claps on all sides, candidates identified themselves and got a handshake and a smile.

Exchange Gifts

One county chairman, John Beddow of Schuylkill County, Penna., handed the President a membership card in the GOP committee in that county. Ike thanked him and delved into a jacket pocket to present Mr.

Beddow with a blue and gold, Ike and Dick campaign tie clip. Mr. Beddow promptly put the clip to use on his "I Like Ike" tie.

There were all sorts of Eisenhower buttons in evidence on men's coat lapels and among the ladies' jewelry. Some were small and conservative and others were jeweled, bright-colored or out-sized.

Art Gifts Stir
Up Controversy

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. (AP)—Busts of John Marshall, George Wythe and William Blackstone by sculptor Felix G. W. deWeldon have been offered as a gift to the College of William and Mary School of Government.

The Virginia Art Commission says they "lack sufficient artistic merit." Virginia's governor told the college it couldn't accept them without approval of the Art Commission.

Then someone suggested the college accept them, not as a gift but as a permanent loan. That got around the law, but the governor has a bill before him to put a two-year limit on art loans.

Sculptor deWeldon, who also did a famous statue of the Marines raising the Iowa Jima flag, says: "It makes no difference to me. Time will rectify this and people with better judgment will come along. My work is recognized around the world."

GOV. SHIVERS STATED POINT ON SEGREGATION

By REM PRICE

Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—Gov. Allan Shivers of Texas has raised a point which lies at the heart of the school integration problem. What happens when there is open defiance of a federal court order?

So far the question has been academic, but in the case of Mansfield, Tex., it came close to being raised in concrete form.

A federal court ordered the Mansfield school board to stop discriminating against the admission of students on the basis of race. The practical effect of this order was to decree the admission of 12 Negro students to Mansfield High School.

Sent The Rangers
When school opened, however, a mob gathered and threatened violence if any Negroes actually sought to enroll.

Shivers then sent six Texas Rangers to Mansfield to help maintain law and order, instructing them to transfer "any scholars, white or colored, whose attendance or attempts to attend Mansfield High School would be reasonably calculated to incite violence."

In essence, the governor said that if violence threatened to accompany Negroes' entry to the school, they should be sent elsewhere. The Negroes dropped their attempt — at least temporarily.

Blind Until Notified
Shivers denied this was defiance of the federal court, but added, "Should the resulting actions be construed as contempt of the federal court, I respectfully suggest that the charge be laid against the governor and not the local people."

So what happens? Nothing at the moment. Federal courts are blind until there is official notification of a violation. Until the interested parties — the Negroes' lawyer or the school board — come before the court and inform it the non-discrimination order is not being obeyed, the court will take no action.

But if the Negroes' or school board's attorney does appear, the court can issue a restraining order against interference with the performance of its original order. If this is violated too, then individuals may be jailed by U.S. marshals for contempt of court — but marshals are process servers primarily, not general law enforcers.

Can Get Complicated
If there is continued defiance, the matter becomes quite delicate. Federal courts in themselves have no innate police powers.

Under the division of powers laid down in the Constitution, only the executive branch of the government can exercise force.

Thus, if there is open defiance of a federal court order, the responsibility for action lies with the President of the United States.

At a news conference last week President Eisenhower said he didn't think the federal government should intervene in the Mansfield case since law and order had been restored.

Ike Had Good Point
He omitted any reference to the more acute point, presumably because, like the court, he has had no official notification that the court's order is not being obeyed.

Eisenhower did observe, however, "when police power is executed habitually by . . . the federal government we are in a bad way. So until the states show their inability to grapple with this question properly, which they haven't yet . . . we'd better be careful about moving in and exercising police power."

Eisenhower had an excellent point. Russia and Red China exercise police power at the national level. So did Hitler and Mussolini.

Around at the Justice Department, though, the Mansfield case

NEW FABRICS LIGHTEN MOM'S WORK BURDEN

By DOROTHY ROE

The Associated Press
Modern working girls never had it so good.

What with modern science working overtime for them, they can look as fresh as daisies every day, with practically no laundry worries.

The original shirtwaist girl of the Gay Nineties spent hours washing, starching and ironing those elaborate tucked and ruffled blouses in which she looked so bewitching. But today her granddaughter dunks her blouses in the wash basin at night, hangs them on hangers in the bathroom and finds them crisp, dainty and ready to wear next morning, without ironing.

As every working girl, college girl and housewife knows, there's nothing like a good supply of fresh, gay blouses to give the wardrobe a lift. Now designers are making this easy by wide use of the new miracle fabrics which take the problems out of wash day.

Synthetic Fabrics
Designer Judy Bond has employed a variety of man-made fabrics in her summer blouse collection, ranging from tailored shirts to frilly, embroidered styles.

One of the new fabrics is Arnel, a new triacetate fiber that drapes beautifully and keeps its crisp, fresh look even in damp weather. It washes easily, dries quickly and needs little or no ironing.

Dacron crepe, which looks like the finest French silk crepe, is made of a new polyester fiber. Wrinkle and soil resistant, this is another easy-to-wash, easy-to-dry fabric.

Soft, absorbent and closely reis under quiet discussion, and the point raised is: When must the federal government act to maintain the integrity of its courts and its own sovereignty?

(Tomorrow: The laws.)

sembling linen in appearance is a new spun blend of dacron and cotton, washes like a handkerchief, needs no ironing.

Another in the lineup is matryque, a new matt type jersey, which is a blend of dacron and nylon. This also washes like a pair of stockings.

The trick with most of the new man-made fabrics designed for easy care is to wash them quickly by hand and then let them drip dry. Smoothing seams and edges with the fingers. Never twist or wring. A supply of plastic hangers in the bathroom will make it easy for you to hang up your blouses to drip dry, with no danger of getting them out of shape.

Costly Timber Wolf Plagues Texas Farm

RYLIE, Texas (AP)—Buss Everett, plagued for three years with a timber wolf which had taken up residence on his 200-acre farm ranch, finally trapped the beast and killed him. But the wolf cost Everett $2,000 before its death.

He says the wolf killed 300 turkeys, 38 sheep and a great many chickens. Numerous possums had tried to run down the animal without success.

The first daily newspaper in America was published in Philadelphia in 1784.

The employees and their families dependent for income on the national railroads and their auxiliary companies totals 3,600,000.

Small arms ammunition should be stored in a cool, dry place, away from heat and the direct rays of the sun.

Schmucker, theologian and president of the Lutheran Theological Seminary; Henry J. Stahl, editor of the compiler, second oldest newspaper in Gettysburg; the Honorable Edward McPherson, U. S. congressman from this district and intimate friend of Thaddeus Stevens.

"The interesting buildings in Gettysburg during its 150 years of existence as an incorporated borough, many of which still stand, are quite numerous and give an additional historical significance to our town. One that I would like to tell you about still stands on Baltimore St. I have included its story in this discussion because I am surprised that most 20th century Gettysburgians know little or nothing about its existence and the interesting events which transpired within its walls. I refer to the Gettysburg Soldiers' Orphans' Home on Baltimore St., opposite the Cyclorama. Founded under very auspicious circumstances in 1866 it was a dismal failure ten years later and came to an end under a cloud of slander and suspicion. The matron was arrested because of her cruelty to the orphans under her supervision."

Proud Of Gettysburg

Mr. Sheads, who described other historical events and persons, declared that "I am proud of the fact that Gettysburg is my home town and I wouldn't trade it for any other community in the United States. Just how important Gettysburg is has been aptly stated by someone in the expression 'The union was born in Philadelphia, but was preserved in Gettysburg.'"

A note of humor was introduced when the speaker said, "I wonder what happened to excite Gettysburgians before the Battle and reporter.

Student Safety Patrol officers are: Jack Mooney, captain; Doris Stonelifer, first lieutenant; Norma Bloom, second lieutenant; Harold Corbin, third lieutenant; Shirley Wilhide, treasurer.

Turkey Trotters and Flying Saucers are two teams of students competing in the magazine campaign launched at the school last week. The school's goal has been set at $3,900, a $200 jump from last year's $3,700.

Speedball practice under the coaching of Miss Allene Brown began last week with a squad composed of 16 girls.

The following soccer schedule has been issued by coach Bernard Decker:

A practice game has been scheduled with Wrensville September 25.

Call State Police
To Minor Accident

State police were called at 9:30 o'clock Wednesday night to investigate an auto accident in which damage totaled $6 and no one was injured.

Police said a car owned by Robert H. Smith, 21, Gettysburg R. 2, going east on the road leading from the Emmitsburg Rd. to the Greenmount ball park at Marsh Creek Heights, brushed against a parked car owned by Merle C. Myers, Hanover. The accident occurred about one-fourth mile from the Emmitsburg Rd. Police estimated damage at $3 to each car, with some paint being removed when they sideswiped. Police said Smith continued on after the crash, and was chased by Harold Angel, Gettysburg R. 2, in another car. Angel came upon Smith halted farther down the road. He told Angel he was seeking to turn around to return to the scene of the crash.

President Eisenhower came here to live. To point up what he meant Sheads read the following headline from the Adams Centinel in 1811: "Ponderous Pachyderm Panicking the People of Gettysburg." The article described the size of the elephant and how it handled its food.

He also read an article on "Gettysburg's First Aviator" or "The Remarkable Journey of John H. McClellan from Gettysburg to York by Air in 1842." This was in a balloon brought to Gettysburg by John Wise, the celebrated balloonist of the day.

Mrs. Stanley W. Hull, chairman of the program department, served as narrator for the old-fashioned style show presented after Mr. Sheads' talk.

Fashion Show

In the parade of yesterday's fashions were: Mrs. J. Allen Holtzworth modeling an 18th century black Spanish lace brought from Spain by a sea captain; Mrs. William Seabrook in a Poona gown in the 1870 manner; Mrs. Leonard Wright in a 1900 grey skirt and dark blue coat; Mrs. John Bollinger in a white lawn gown trimmed with lace, in the 1905 style; Mrs. William Musser modeling a 1907 white voile afternoon dress trimmed with lace insertions and embroidery; Mrs. Charles Bollinger dressed in a champagne-colored gown designed from an embroidered shawl tied with an apricot-colored sash; Mrs. Sterling Musselman in a flapper-style cocoa brown crepe frock trimmed with grey beads; Mrs. James A. Martin in a smart 19th century going-away suit of grey flannel topped with a grey velvet hat; Mrs. Harold E. Ecker in a black silk beaded dress with cape and a garnet velvet hat; Mrs. Harold E. interest of the U. S. but he warned: "Elections aren't won on a diet of dishwater and milk toast" and President Eisenhower nodded assent as he applauded the speaker from his platform seat to Nixon's right.

Referring to the debate among GOP leaders about how attacks by Democrats should be met, Nixon declared "misrepresentation and distortion must be set right. That's our responsibility and I intend to meet it, well intentioned advice to the contrary notwithstanding."

"Political Fakery"

He accused Stevenson of "political fakery and irresponsibility" in calling for an end to the draft and nuclear testing while Russia continues tests and our NATO friends in Europe are trying to meet their quotas in the armed forces.

Nixon said he would be "glad to compare the moral standards of the Eisenhower administration with those of the Truman administration any day or night." He challenged Stevenson to repudiate Truman's statement that Hiss was not a spy. He said if Stevenson doesn't disown the Truman statement "we shall have to discuss this issue and let the people decide whether our opponents are better qualified to handle this problem."

The vice president assailed claims the Eisenhower administration has been guilty of misconduct and corruption. He declared President yellow plumes holding the hand of her daughter, Barbara, dressed in a red velvet lace-trimmed coat with a matching beaver lace-trimmed bonnet. Mrs. William Seabrook in a brown moire satin dress from Mrs. W. R. Sammel's family; Mrs. Ecker in a flapper dress with a beaded georgette bodice and a black chiffon skirt; and Mrs. Joseph S. Heiney in a brown frock of chrome spun acetate with a cloche hat in autumn yellow and matching accessories.

Mrs. R. D. Wickerham gave the invocation. At the speakers' table was Mrs. R. E. Berkeimer, Mrs. Ecker, president, who presided, Mrs. Mark A. Ecker, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. J. Herbert Raymond, chairman of the hospitality committee. The table was decorated with white gladioli and yellow mums which were presented to Mrs. Roy E. Zinn, honorary member, after the luncheon.

Present Past Presidents

Mrs. Ecker introduced the following past presidents who were in attendance: Mrs. M. K. Ecker, Mrs. Lloyd C. Keefe, Mrs. Harry M. Scharf and Mrs. Charles W. Orem.

Announcement was made that the Adams County Federation of Women's Clubs will hold a luncheon at the Hotel Gettysburg October 3 at 1:30 p.m.

The club has been invited to attend a meeting of the public affairs committee of the YWCA September 20 at which Robert Fidler of Gettysburg High School will discuss the "Electoral College."

Mrs. Frank H. Kramer announced that the Gettysburg Concert Association will hold its kick-off dinner October 1 at 6:30 p.m. at the Hotel Gettysburg. She announced two hold dates for the Vienna Ensemble and the Festival Chorus.

The club will present a Sesqui-centennial display in the store room of the Glenn L. Bream building, West St., at the shopping center September 15 through 22 from noon until 9 p.m. daily. Two club women will be present at all times to conduct visitors through the living room, bedroom and kitchen which will be furnished in an antique manner. The Gettysburg Chapter, DAR, will have on display at that time old-fashioned quilts and coverlets.

Eisenhower has "restored dignity and respect to the high office of President" and "no breach of the public trust ever has been condoned by him nor ever will."

"Shotgun Wedding"

"There's no easy way to win this election," he concluded. "Let's tell the story of the Eisenhower administration in every home in the nation. I pledge every waking hour between now and November 6 to that cause."

GOP National Chairman Leonard Hall scored with the crowd when, in a talk before the vice president, he quoted primary campaign attacks by Stevenson and Keefe on each other and then laughed: "That's been a strange honeymoon we've been watching for that ticket united in Chicago at a shotgun wedding."

Answering Democratic campaign claims, Hall attacked Stevenson for calling for an end of the draft and nuclear testing and for talking about hard times and depression in the midst of peace and prosperity. "The free world hasn't lost a foot of ground to the Reds under our President," Hall said, who then pointed out Red territorial gains while Truman was president.

He assailed Truman for "white-washing" Alger Hiss, Dexter White and Silvermaster "and for calling our great President a racketeer. There's not one person in the United States who pays any attention to the fact that Mr. Truman calls you a racketeer, Mr. President," Hall declared.

Face Tough Fight

"Elections are won or lost in the precincts. There's no substitute for shoeleather in politics," Hall declared. "We face the toughest fight in the history of our party and a greater victory than in 1952 is possible," he concluded.

Senator James H. Duff, running for re-election to the U. S. Senate, who introduced the President Wednesday "as the greatest living citizen of the modern world," had gotten in some licks of his own at the Democrats when he "spoke for Pennsylvania" earlier in the program.

Duff, explaining he was following an example set by the President when he opened many important meetings, called for the crowd to rise for a moment of silent prayer at the opening of the program. He praised "our significant leader, the commander of the greatest military force in history and the most beloved President of the United States" and saluted him as the "only citizen of Pennsylvania to serve as a Republican president of the U. S."

Give Progress Reports

Senator Duff formally welcomed the crowd and said "We're here to learn more of the how, when and where of this campaign."

Then Chairman Hall called for "progress reports" from all sections of the nation and leader after leader stepped to the platform to give reports from their areas and organizations.

First was Mrs. Dorothy Houghton, co-chairman of the Citizens for Eisenhower and Nixon. She urged: "Let's remember Maine and vow it shall not happen in any other states." She pledged the energy of 54 million women voters and "weeks of hard work to bring about the greatest majority ever for a president."

Next was Miss Bertha Adkins, assistant to the national chairman. She reported on the work of the women in registering voters. She complimented Ike and Nixon "on your good judgment in choosing your wives. They are the finest examples of American womanhood."

Record Registration

Morton Hollingsworth, Illinois Republican chairman, said registration in the Midwest is at an all-time high. "Adlai carried four Illinois counties in '52 and we're determined he won't improve that record this year."

William Shartzer, a young Republican from Georgia, said the "South is ready and willing to do all in its power for a total Republican victory in November and, Mr. President, you are directly responsible for that feeling in the South." He told of a "complete rejuvenation of the GOP below the Mason-Dixon line."

Wellington Rankin of Montana, chairman for the conference of 11 western states, told of a "real registration crusade there" as part of a "tremendous job to be done."

Judson Morehouse of New York reported on registration work there and predicted a record-breaking GOP vote there in November. "Our real report will be made on election night."

Charles McWhorter, national Young Republican chairman, pledged young Republicans to cast their ballots for Ike and Dick "because they have kept the faith."

Last on the list of reports was given by Gen. John Reed Kilpatrick, national co-chairman of the Citizens for Eisenhower, who said: "Maybe we're amateurs and maybe we're guilty of inexperience but we're not guilty of any lack of devotion nor enthusiasm for the great cause of the Republican party. We admire you extravagantly, Mr. President, chiefly for having brought back respect and admiration for the great office of the President of the United States."

Speech-making which had started at 4:20 ended at 5:55 p.m. with a 10-minute recess declared before the picnic supper was served. The catering was by the Hotel Gettysburg.

TRANSPORT PLAN LOST

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Nationalist air forces headquarters in Formosa today reported the loss of a transport plane which it said disappeared on a night training flight Aug. 29. It carried eight men.

NEW YORK (AP)—A 45-year-old butcher was arrested early today at LaGuardia Field and accused of driving his car onto a runway and nearly colliding with an incoming DC6 airliner.

Police said the car operated by John A. Heckenblaekner almost hit the left outboard engine propeller of a four-engine United Air Lines plane arriving from Chicago via Philadelphia with seven passengers and a crew of four.

NEHRU DECRIES
NEW CANAL UNIT

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru today denounced Western plans to create a Suez Canal users' association.

He said he was "surprised" by British Prime Minister Eden's statement yesterday in the House of Commons and declared the "consequences would be very grave," because it closed the door to further negotiations with Egypt and implied an intention to impose a settlement.

Speaking in a Parliament session, Nehru said he had told Eden and President Eisenhower that Egypt's proposal to create a negotiating agency opened the way to a settlement.

"I have in the last few days communicated to Prime Minister Eden and President Eisenhower that the situation after the Menzies mission and the statement by Egypt accepting all international obligations and inviting negotiation opened the way for a settlement," Nehru said.

He added that India appealed to all concerned to accept this situation and seek the "path of peace" and that he hoped his appeal would "not be in vain."

Opens Settlement

Francis Smith and Robert Redding were named delegates to the State Firemen's Association convention at Scranton October 4 to 6. Firemen were urged to attend the county firemen's association meeting at Grace Church hall October 8. Mt. Joy Fire Co. will be host.

A minute of silence in respect for C. Ray Rupp, last surviving charter member of the fire department, who died recently, was observed.

Following some discussion the firemen decided to place a number of "no smoking" signs in the firemen's meeting room at the engine house. Since it was redecorated several years ago the firemen have banned smoking at their meetings. However, it was reported that other groups using the room have been smoking and some small damage has resulted.

SAYS IKE IS CYNICAL ABOUT DEM ECONOMY

YORK, Pa. (P.—Sen. Estes Kefauver accused President Eisenhower today of cynicism about Democratic efforts to maintain a prosperous family-farm economy in rural America.

"In case you missed the news, papers in the past day or two I bring you the information that Gen. Eisenhower has come out against 'get rich quick' programs for the American farmer," the Democratic vice presidential candidate declared in a prepared address at the York County Fair.

He said Eisenhower made the comment at a press conference Tuesday. Kefauver said:

"Get rich quick! Let Mr. Eisenhower tell his banker friends he's against 'get rich quick' programs. Let him tell it to General Motors. Let him tell it to the well-heeled gentlemen he invites to those stag dinners at the White House.

"Get Rich Quick"
"But don't let him tell one of the lowest income groups in the nation that he is opposed to their getting rich quick."

"I believe the farmers of America are ready to turn back to their true friends the Democrats." In discussing the farm problem with a questioner at his news conference, Eisenhower said:

"I have said time and again there are two things here we must do: we must preserve our most precious asset, our soil and water resources, for future generations and, at the same time, we must work out a program under which the agricultural community can share properly in our unprecedented prosperity . . .

Take Time, Patience
"Now, if we are going to do that, it is going to take some patience and some working out. And people who get impatient and believe in get-rich-quick cures may disagree."

"My program along this line has been restated time and again. I follow principle, and if that is what they want, that is what I will give . . ."

GOP RALLY WAS SHOT IN ARM FOR PENNSYLVANIA

By LEONARD A. UNGER

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (P)—President Eisenhower's political picnic for Republican leaders from throughout the nation was termed today "a shot in the arm" for GOP candidates in Pennsylvania.

"It was of tremendous value to our candidates in the state," said Sen. Edward Martin. "It should be a shot in the arm for our campaign in the eyes of the voters."

Martin told a newsman he expected the President will likely make one—or possibly two—political appearances in Pennsylvania before the Nov. 6 general election.

Eisenhower, who since registering as an Adams County voter earlier in the year has become Pennsylvania's No. 1 Republican, used the tent rally on his farm here yesterday to spotlight the campaign of Sen. James H. Duff.

"My Senator"

Duff, opposed for a second six-year term by former Philadelphia Mayor Joseph S. Clark Jr., was described by the President as "my senator."

And Eisenhower beamed his approval when Duff welcomed 1,000 of the nation's GOP leaders to the picnic.

Just before the festivities got under way, Duff and Eisenhower walked side by side over a portion of the presidential acres.

It was during this stroll that Duff—without any fanfare—handed the President a 48-page leather-bound book with photographs of Eisenhower and his family on the farm.

"Here's a present from my senator," Eisenhower said to onlookers.

Likened To Lincoln

The task assigned to Duff in welcoming the Republicans to the dinner gave him a prominence that only a senator seeking reelection can truly appreciate.

Duff recalled that Abraham Lincoln delivered his Gettysburg speech less than two miles from the Eisenhower farm.

In this conjunction, Duff likened Eisenhower to Lincoln and described the President as "our magnificent leader in this crusade."

Rep. Richard M. Simpson (R-Pa.), chairman at the GOP Congressional Campaign Committee, told newsmen at the affair that Pennsylvania Republicans expect to pick up three and possibly four congressional seats in the November election.

He declined to name the districts except to strongly indicate the 19th District—of which Eisenhower is a member—is among those predicted to elect GOP congressmen.

The district comprises Cumberland, York and Adams Counties.

CHURCHMEN ASK FEWER TALKS

LAKE JUNALUSKA, N.C. (P)—

Fewer speeches. More time for discussion.

That was the sentiment of delegates to the World Methodist Conference, at the end of 12 days of meetings—at which more than 60 lectures were delivered.

Bishop Fred P. Corson of Philadelphia, summing up the conclusions of "discussion groups" which met in the brief intervals between speeches, reported: "Delegates . . . to future assemblies want more time for discussion of current problems . . . and fewer addresses."

2,000 Attend

About 2,000 delegates from 44 nations attended the conference, hailed by Bishop Ivan Lee Holt of St. Louis, outgoing president of the church's World Council, as: "The most tremendous meeting

Runaway Boxcar Is Spotted By Switcher

ST. CLOUD, Minn. (P)—"Itchy wheels," the runaway boxcar, is back in the sheltering arms of the car barns after trying the open road with near disastrous results.

Shrouded by torrential rains, the boxcar made a break for it, slipped past the passenger station and was headed for open country when a switch engine crew spotted it. Someone threw a switch just in time to head off the boxcar's early demise at the hands of a passenger train.

DEMOCRATS PLAN EDUCATION HEALTH PLANKS

HARRISBURG (P)—The Democratic State Committee had before it for approval today a state election platform designed to improve Pennsylvania's education and mental health programs.

The committee will meet later today to vote on the proposed list of planks which, if ratified, would constitute a Pennsylvania supplement to the national platform for the November presidential election.

Listed among the proposed planks is one calling for the placing of particular emphasis on improvement of state care for handicapped and retarded children.

The meeting is one of several Democratic activities in the Capitol City which will be climaxed tonight with a nationwide television address by Adia Stevenson, Democratic presidential candidate.

Stevenson's talk in the State Farm Show Arena will launch a series of nationwide TV addresses he will make in his bid for the presidency in the November election.

Fund-Raising Dinner

Some 5,000 party followers are expected to attend the $50-a-plate fund-raising dinner.

Sen. Joseph M. Barr, Democratic state chairman, set a goal of 10,000 tickets to be sold for a net party gain of $500,000.

James A. Finnegan, former commonwealth secretary under the Leader administration and now the Stevenson-Kefauver campaign manager; Mayor David L. Lawrence of Pittsburgh, and Barr also will speak at the dinner.

The proposed platform accuses the Republican state party of "amazing negligence" in what the written proposal describes as "its failure to meet our fiscal crisis in 16 years of uninterrupted power."

Also listed is a call for "cooperation between state and federal governments to raise our standard of living and develop the full potential of America."

The platform criticized the present 3 per cent state retail sales tax which it said was "a Republican tax, enacted into law only when the Republican majority in the State Senate held a pistol at the head of organized government."

Highlight of the meeting will be a talk by Stevenson.

DUE CAUSE

DENVER (P)—Domestic Judge Joseph E. Cook granted a divorce to Mrs. Sarah Chinn after she complained, among other things, her husband wouldn't let her take a bath "because he needed the hot water for his restaurant." She said her husband, Harry, 59, wouldn't give her more than two meals a day while he ate three at the restaurant.

Methodists have ever had anywhere, anytime."

The Rev. Dr. Harold Roberts, a British theologian and educator, was elected to succeed Bishop Holt.

The conference, in its closing sessions yesterday, gave final approval to a 1,500-word message condemning discrimination or segregation based on color or race.

Call Auto Stamp Placement Unsafe

PITTSBURGH (P)—A new state auto inspection regulation calling for the placement of stickers near the center of wrap-around windshields is described by the Pittsburgh Motor Club as "utterly fantastic and a serious threat to highway safety."

They Met at GETTYSBURG

Although much has been written about the Battle of Gettysburg in the nearly 100 years since the history-shaping 3-day conflict occurred, there has never been—until now—a really definitive, accurate and complete book on the subject. THEY MET AT GETTYSBURG fills this need. It is not a military treatise, but a lively, intriguing narrative, written for the layman—one that follows the events of the battle "play-by-play," telling you not only what happened, but, insofar as possible, why it happened. It is truthful and frank, but unprejudiced, and will be read with pleasure and satisfaction by descendants of both the Blue and the Gray. THEY MET AT GETTYSBURG is beautifully printed and bound, and is excitingly illustrated with 19 progressive battle maps and 124 other line cuts and halftones, including some by Brady, the famous Civil War photographer. Library Edition, with map endpapers, and two-color reproduction of Gayle Hoskins' "Pickett's Charge" on the cover, $4.95.

Limited, Deluxe Edition of 300 copies. Leather-bound, gold-edged and gold-embossed. Boxed, numbered and autographed. $12.50.

General Edward J. Stackpole, of Harrisburg, the author of THEY MET AT GETTYSBURG, is a well known publisher, military student and civic leader who has devoted untold hours to the study of the Battle of Gettysburg. He is peculiarly qualified for the taxing job of seeking out and telling the true story of the controversial battle not only by his publishing background, but also because he has had a long and fruitful military career of his own—a career that spanned two wars and encompassed the successive command of a squad, platoon, company, regiment, brigade and division. In the writing of THEY MET AT GETTYSBURG, General Stackpole studied all available source material, including much hitherto unpublished data, spent days on the ground itself, pouring over contemporary maps, then patiently sifted out the important from the inconsequential or inaccurate, and finally arranged the remaining pieces into a coherent, carefully integrated account that is clear, readable and satisfying from every point of view—an account that answers with authority the numerous questions that invariably arise concerning Gettysburg and its place in American history.

First Effort To Build A Church In East Berlin Recorded In 1811 When Lutherans Solicited Funds; Present Trinity Church Built In 1888

The first known effort to build a church in East Berlin was in 1811 when Lutheran and German Reformed (Presbyterians) began soliciting funds from "all pious and charitable Christians of any denominations." Amounts subscribed were small, ranging from ten to sixty dollars with the exception of one subscription of one hundred dollars credited to Philip Jacob Bohn.

Records show that the building was not fully completed under terms of the first contract awarded to Frederick Asper, May 13, 1811. Ten years after this date, a reorganization was effected by the adoption of a constitution for the government of the project after which another attempt was made to finish the work. To this end, another subscription was circulated and on July 26, 1822 the second contract was drawn up and the building finished some months later. There is no record of the dimensions of this church.

There is evidence that many sacrificing efforts were required to secure funds necessary to complete and furnish the building which had a total expenditure of $2,090.63. The largest items of this cost were $434.00 for 160,000 bricks; $123.50 for shingles and $367.47 for labor.

Lutherans Sell Interest

This church served both congregations until May 11, 1889, when the Lutherans, who now had a new place of worship, sold their interest for $250.00, the transfer being made for $107 cash and a note for $143.

In all probability, the union preaching was done by anonymous supply pastors until Rev. John Speck began his pastorate in the unfinished building on July 9, 1819, and served until some time in 1822 when he was succeeded by Rev. Jacob Albert who remained until 1828. Other pastors who served this union congregation were: Rev. Andrew Deininger, 1828-53; Rev. Leonard Gerhart, 1853-61; Rev. Dr. D. J. Hauer, 1861-73; Rev. Michael Snyder, 1873-77; Rev. M. J. Alleman, 1878-79; Rev. S. P. Orwig, 1879-83; Rev. D. Sell (supply), 1884-85; Rev. John Tomlinson, 1885 until the new Lutheran church was completed in 1888. This union church, which stood due east of the present cement walk through the cemetery, was later razed by the Reformed congregation and much of the materials used in the erection of the present Zwingli Church.

Few records are available as to parish boundaries. Various congregations were admitted and withdrawn at irregular intervals. The first record concerning this matter is dated September 24, 1849,

Trinity Lutheran Church at East Berlin

In all probability, this union church replaced Zeiglers of the former Abbottstown, Leshey, New Oxford and Zeigler parish sometime prior to August 19, 1853, and remained as such until the congregations separated.

Separate Worship Place

The earliest record of efforts by the Lutherans to establish a separate place of worship occurred on October 22, 1886, when John Eyster, J. M. Smyser, Elijah Spangler and John Picking pledged $300.00 each, payable in two installments, to begin this project. There is evidence that these initial pledges were increased and many others added by Oct. of 1887 when the third canvass for building funds was made.

Under the pastorate of Rev. John Tomlinson, who remained a Lutheran pastor after the union congregation was dissolved, the first financial report to the Council by solicitors on Oct. 3, 1887, showed $5,832.50. Several days later this amount was increased to $6,166.50 and the Council immediately voted to build a "two-story building not less than forty-two by seventy-four feet" in the borough of East Berlin with the expressed condition that it be erected on front or Main street between the alleys or streets at the residences of Jacob Resser or John Jacobs. The building committee, without council approval, decided a site farther down the street be more suitable and began contacting these property holders: George W. Spangler, Dr. R. N. Meisenholder, John Hartley and Mrs. Susan McSherry, who refused to sell. Available lots were those of Jacob M. Smyser, Franklin Baugher, James Beavenour and Sarah Stouffer.

Bitter dissatisfaction over the eventual selection of the Stouffer property, a lot with sixty-five feet frontage, at a cost of eleven hundred dollars, resulted in an Adams County court action instituted by thirty-two subscribers who refused to pay their pledges. However, after some litigation and resulting loss of time, thirty-one of these subscribers decided to pay their pledged amounts and the other asked and received membership transfers for his family to a York church.

Dedicated In 1889

On October 22, 1887, the $5,433.50 proposal of J. R. Darone, local contractor, to erect the building and fresco the auditorium was accepted. Darone's bondsmen were: Noah Sprengle and Josiah and Joseph Bowers. Joseph Dize, Glen Rock, was the architect.

The building was finished November 19, 1888, and dedicated free of debt, May 26, 1889. The cost of $9,240.00 included Memorial windows, pews, pulpit, bell, pressed bricks from the Alwin Brick yards, Berlin Junction, were used in the church front. The remainder of 200,000 were burned on the James Spangler farm near East Berlin. The outside sandstone steps cost $7.90 and were hauled from the Conewago hills. This building is the present Trinity church.

Trinity was one of a three-member parish until Synod, meeting at Carlisle on October 11, 1893, ratified a division after which New Oxford united with an organized mission at McSherrystown leaving East Berlin and Abbottstown to constitute the present parish.

Pastoral Duties

All available data on ministerial acts are recorded in parish figures thereby making impossible any report of growths at Trinity by these pastors who served since it became a separate congregation: 1885-92, Rev. John Tomlinson, who continued to serve after the union congregation separated and Trinity was erected.

1892-1908, Rev. Dr. Richard Henry Clare, who suffered a breakdown during his first year because of family illnesses and the large field to be covered, always conducted two preparatory services at each of the three churches of the parish, Saturday afternoon in German and in English in the evening. During this pastorate, an annex, 22 x 24 feet, to be used as a primary Sunday School room was built by A. B. Trimmer, contractor, and dedicated, free of debt, December 12, 1900, at a cost of $491.48 including furniture. Two years later, the congregation voted the first use of individual communion cups, two circular ventilators were installed in the nave and in August of 1894 the first singing school was organized. Also, the council authorized drawing no less than five iron rods through the building to insure safety of the roof.

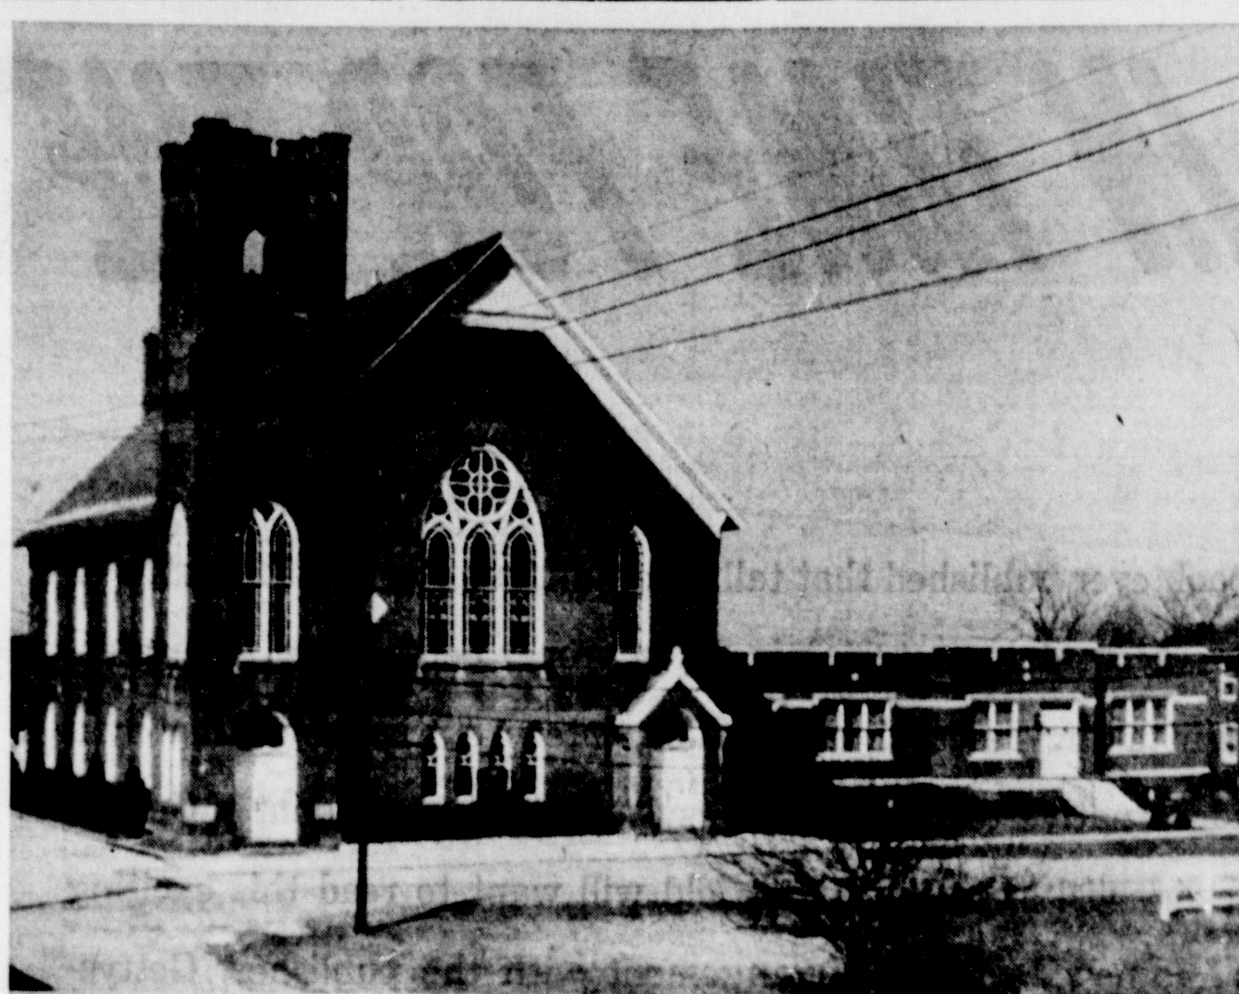

1938-39, William H. Feldman, supply.

1939-41, Rev. John R. Strevig: An extensive program of renovation was completed. It included reappointment of the chancel and re-decoration of the church auditorium, junior choir loft erected, pipe organ repaired and pipes repainted, aisles covered with carpet, etc., at a cost of $2,940.00.

1941-48, Rev. Henry Snyder Alleman: The heating plant was converted from coal to gas, a new method of lighting installed and the flat surface of the auditorium ceiling was paneled with acoustical ceiling during 1947 and two indoor rest rooms provided. Rev. Alleman was delegate to U.L.C.A. in Minneapolis, 1944.

1948-49, Rev. Paul Gladfelter (supply): During this year the adult Sunday School room was renovated and redecorated.

1949-, Rev. Lester J. Karschner present pastor: In 1951 the 140th anniversary of Trinity was observed. A copy of Hoffman's "Christ Among the Doctors," painted by Alex B. Imhoff, Reading, a gift from Mrs. John Gentzler in memory of her husband, was dedicated in the adult Sunday

St. John's Lutheran Church at Abbottstown

30, 1909.

1911-20, Rev. F. C. Sternat: Ruling this pastorate a car-bide light plant was purchased and the church exterior painted at a combined cost of $453.00.

1920-38, Rev. Paul Gladfelter: In spite of prolonged illness in his family, this pastor continued the practice of his predecessors in conducting a two-week evangelistic service in each congregation every year. Building improvements made at a cost of $3,989.18 included painting of walls, refinished annex and the erection of a rear floor, enlargement of primary stairway, etc.

School room on September 23. The exterior of the church was repainted during this year.

Annex Built

The following year saw the continued increased Sunday School enrollment make the need for additional space mandatory. On Feb. 24, 1952, a resolution was passed at a congregational meeting authorizing the erection of an annex to the rear of the building and on March 23, Rev. Irvin Lau, York, a son of Trinity, spoke at a ground-breaking ceremony for a 35 x 80 ft. building.

This multi-purpose annex has a main room that can be curtail-divided into six classrooms, equipped with dark shades for visual aids, when used for educational work. The church has still and motion picture projectors and amplification systems. When used as a banquet hall, the main room will seat 150 persons at tables. An additional 50 persons can be seated on the stage. A modern kitchen, equipped to serve 200 persons, is included in the annex which was built with foundation and steel adequate to support a second story if needed later.

The annex cost was $31,000 and changes to the heating system, the intermediate department and rest rooms at a cost of $1,500.00 made a project total of $32,500 which was financed by 2 per cent bonds bought by members of the congregation.

Dedicated In 1953

The annex was dedicated May 3, 1953, and the last bond burned at the worship service December 25, 1955, freeing the church of indebtedness.

Trinity now includes a beautiful, well appointed sanctuary for worship, a fine adult Sunday School department, a church parlor in which the intermediate department meets and now the annex. The entire property is in good repair, automatically gas heated and beautifully decorated.

Ministerial Sons of Trinity include George W. McSherry, Charles M. Eyster, David Lau and Jere B. Lau, all deceased; Irvin M. Lau, retired, York, and Jacob M. Spangler, present pastor of Wrightsville Lutheran church.

Organists have been Mrs. J. R. Darone and Mrs. Curtis Spangler, deceased; Mrs. Mae Grogg Jacobs, Mrs. Grace Bushey Hege, Mrs. Mary Reynolds Montgomery, and presently serving, Miss Mae Bender Wolf.

BANK ROBBER IS CAPTURED

SHICKSHINNY, Pa. (AP)—A young robber held up the First National Bank at nearby Mocanaqua, Pa., and fled with $1,800 Wednesday but was captured as he pulled up at his home in the getaway car a half hour later.

State police identified the hold-up man as Andrew Medvec, 29, of Hanover Twp., near Wilkes-Barre. They said the holdup loot was found in his car when apprehended.

Medvec forced his way through a rear door at the bank shortly before 10 a.m., state police said, and accosted two teller-clerks, Miss Micheline Zigmarski and Miss Frances Orzechowski, who were alone at the time. A vice president, Arthur Brobst, was upstairs, getting some supplies.

The man held the two women at gunpoint, police said, and took the money, then fled in his automobile. An approaching customer spotted the license number of the car and reported it to authorities.

State and local police were waiting at Medvec's home when he arrived a half hour after the robbery, they said. He surrendered without a struggle.

He was taken back to the bank for identification by his victims, police said, and then would be taken to the Wyoming barracks of state police for further questioning and formal charging.

Weather Plane With 16 Aboard Is Lost

TOKYO (AP)—The U.S. Air Force said today the search for a weather plane and its 16-man crew, believed down in the Sea of Japan, had produced "absolutely nothing."

A spokesman said the hunt, spread over more than 100,000 square miles of choppy waters between Japan and Siberia, would continue into the night.

The plane, an RB50 — reconnaissance Version of the B50 bomber — was last heard from Monday 200 miles northwest of Nigata, Japan, while tracking Typhoon Emma.

IKE URGES U. S. TO WIDEN RED CURTAIN 'CHINKS'

By BEM PRICE
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower said, "We must widen every possible chink in the Iron Curtain."

He added that whenever the love of freedom becomes "greater than the fear of guns at their back, then dictatorships fall."

Eisenhower was speaking informally yesterday to leaders from about 40 fields of American endeavor. He was urging a program of people-to-people contacts around the globe, a sort of "every American an ambassador of good will" idea.

Of course Eisenhower was not proposing that all the world be recast in the image of the United States, but suppose, in such a people-to-people program, Americans went around the world preaching this doctrine:

Preach Doctrine
"Governments are instituted among men, deriving their powers from the just consent of governed . . . whenever any form of government becomes destructive of those ends, it is the right of the people to alter and abolish it, and to institute new government, laying its foundations on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and happiness."

For suppressed peoples everywhere this would be a call to arms. Indeed, it once was. The words are from the Declaration of Independence.

It says: Throw off your yokes and work out your destinies; determine the type of government you feel will do the most for you as a free people.

But times change.

Aid Approval
If Americans went around so preaching would they, under the United Nations Charter, be interfering with the internal affairs of other nations?

Would Congress approve economic and military aid to nations which decided upon a socialistic form of government?

Two of the staunchest U.S. allies are Great Britain and France. How would they view this preaching if carried to their colonial peoples in Kenya, Nigeria, Algeria?

Third Under Dictators
Suppose the Voice of America, Radio Free Europe and Radio Free Asia began broadcasting this message, like a steady drumbeat, across the Iron and Bamboo curtains?

More than a third of the world's population lives under some form of dictatorship. This is the sort of message men who rule by force would consider subversive. Would they just sit still?

In his talk Eisenhower also said that some people around the world regard the United States as warlike and materialistic.

Suppose Americans soft-pedaled their talk about "massive retaliation," going to the "brink of war," and bigger and better nuclear weapons? Suppose Americans simply concluded that the sick, the hungry and the cold were to be helped out of a great and sometimes embarrassing plenty simply because they were sick, cold and hungry?

American Declaration
And suppose with this program, the United States coupled these words: "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their creator with certain inalienable rights that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness?"

In brief, suppose the State Department and Congress made the Declaration of Independence an integral part of United States foreign policy, would it be dangerous to world peace?

Anyhow, Eisenhower's little talk sounded fine.

PIKE PROPOSES TOLL CUT FOR MOST TRUCKS

By DICK HOENIG
HARRISBURG (AP) — The Pennsylvania Turnpike system Wednesday proposed a toll reduction for most trucks by making revisions in its weight classification system.

Chairman G. Franklin McSorley said the proposed changes, a move to induce truckers to return to the superhighway, are in the hands of Michael Baker Jr., Inc., the commission's consulting engineer.

"I still think we can have truck changes almost immediately," he said.

The changes, he explained, would affect "very small trucks," auto carriers, and trucks over 45,000 pounds.

No Outright Change
McSorley emphasized the proposed revisions do not change the rates outright. However, by changing the classification under which a truck is classified the toll charge will be decreased.

A special report made by the Baker firm in July recommended an immediate, drastic and "realistic" reduction in truck tolls in order to recover some of the truck traffic lost by the toll road since last year.

"The proposed weight changes will generally return our regulations to what they were before the new truck weight law became effective," McSorley added.

The changes as outlined by the chairman:

"Very small trucks" will be charged a toll "just a bit" above passenger car rates. Automobile carriers will be reclassified to "save them some money."

The largest type trucks will be permitted to carry above 45,000 pounds "without paying much more."

"I think the commission will adopt these changes when returned by the consulting engineer," McSorley said. "At least I will recommend them for adoption."

At the same time he disclosed that several proposals made by representatives of trucking interests at a meeting with the commission have been rejected. One would have revised the present discount rates and procedures for large users.

No Discount Change
"There will be no change in the discount regulations," McSorley said. The top discount rate for large users is 20 per cent for

SEN. DUFF SAYS CLARK DISTORTS FACTS TO WIN

BLOOMSBURG, Pa. (AP) — Sen. James Duff (R-Pa.) says that Democratic senatorial candidate Joseph Clark "wants the job so badly that he is misrepresenting the facts" about Duff's Senate attendance record.

Duff said Tuesday night in a radio interview (WHLM) that he is "amazed" at Clark's charges, which the former Philadelphia Mayor challenged Duff to deny.

Clark said that in Duff's tenure in the Senate since 1951 his record of absences from roll call votes was among the worst in his first five years and that the complete figures were not known for the past session of Congress.

Duff said that he had a better attendance record in the 83rd and 84th Congresses (the past two) than these four Democratic senators: Kefauver of Tennessee, the party's vice presidential nominee; Chavez of New Mexico, George of Georgia and Eastland of Mississippi.

Duff said that if the Republican party got word of any "political reprisals for refusing" to buy tickets, "this will be one of the first things to be investigated when Republicans take over the State Legislature next year."

In another statement, State Rep. Charles C. Smith (R-Phila.) said the Leader administration chose a New York advertising firm to handle a State Commerce Department program publicizing the commercial benefits of the commonwealth in "repayment of a political favor."

Neither Leader nor State Commerce Secretary William R. Davlin was available for comment on the $350,000 contract.

Sir Winston Churchill retired as England's prime minister in April, 1955.

GIRL SCOUTERS
MAKE PLANS FOR
'56 FUND DRIVE

The Littlestown Girl Scout Troop Committee members, leaders and assistants of Brownies and Girl Scouts held their September meeting on Tuesday evening, in the engine house. Mrs. Kenneth K. Kroh and Mrs. Robert H. Miller, co-neighborhood chairman, presided.

Plans were made for the annual drive for funds for the Girl Scouts to be held in the community on Friday, October 12 at 6 p.m. Mrs. Earl L. Stites is the local drive chairman. The solicitors and Girl Scouts who will accompany them, in uniform, will meet at the engine house at that time, for the door-to-door solicitation. The Adams County Girl Scout Council Budget for this year totals $4,777.50.

Appoint Committee

A neighborhood chairman for the 1956-1957 Girl Scout year will be elected at the next meeting on Monday, October 15, in the fire hall. The following nominating committee was appointed: Mrs. William R. Keefe, chairman, Mrs. Wilson P. Greene and Mrs. Harold S. Roberts. There was a discussion on the possibility of holding a leadership training course in town, if enough women are interested. Sixteen hours are required to complete the course.

It was announced that second grade girls may register for the new Brownie troop to be formed on Saturday morning, at the engine house, between the hours of 10 and 12. The local Girl Scout organization at the present time includes the following troops: No. 39, Mrs. Harold S. Roberts and Mrs. Earl L. Inners, leaders; No. 34, Mrs. Carroll E. Arter and Mrs. Robert W. Gouker; No. 28, Mrs. Walter S. Morelock Jr. and Mrs. John Bowers; No. 16, leader needed and Mrs. Monroe G. Morelock, assistant; No. 13, Mrs. A. G. Ealy and Mrs. Wilson P. BANK EXAMINERS
SET OFF ALARM

HAGERSTOWN, Md. (AP)—Police came on the double when the burglar alarm sounded in the First Federal Savings and Loan Assn. here.

Bursting in, they found a group of strange men sitting around in their shirt sleeves. Turned out they were strangers, at that—bank examiners from North Carolina.

It was Defenders' Day, a Maryland holiday honoring the defense of Fort Mchenry in the War of 1812.

Mrs. Mildred Heess, secretary-treasurer of the association, had let the examiners in with a key, and gone home for the holiday. She had neglected to tell them about the burglar alarm.

Somehow one of them touched the wrong piece of equipment and that did it.

presided; Karl P. Bankert, Henry E. Waltman and Luther W. Ritter, secretary. The board will meet again on Tuesday, October 9.

Cubmaster Stewart N. Long has called a meeting of the Cub Scout officials and den mothers for Tuesday, September 18, 7:30 p.m., at the Legion Home, E. King St. The fall scouting program will be planned.

Sunday School officers, teachers and workers, and councilmen from St. John's Lutheran Church are invited to attend the stewardship workshop at St. James' Church, Gettysburg, on Friday at 7:30 p.m. Transportation will be provided, leaving from the church at 7 p.m.

Property Is Sold

A public party will be sponsored by the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Fraternal Order of Eagles, Littlestown Aerie No. 2226 on Friday evening, beginning at 8 o'clock at the FOE Home.

St. Aloysius Catholic Church will hold a public party in the parish hall on Saturday evening, 8 o'clock. Refreshments will be available. Mr. and Mrs. Garian R. Gillespie, who recently removed to Alton, Ill., have sold their former home on Walnut St. to Mr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Sell, Belleville, N. J. The sale was made through A. C. Garland, Littlestown realtor.

Miss Patsy Snyder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Snyder, near town, has entered training at the Church Home and Hospital School of Nursing, Baltimore. Miss Snyder is a 1956 graduate of the Littlestown High School.

TALMADGE WINS
GA. NOMINATION

ATLANTA (AP)—Georgia's successor to veteran U.S. Sen. Walter F. George will be Herman E. Talmadge, 43-year-old staunch racial segregationist.

Talmadge rode to victory yesterday in the Democratic primary—equivalent to election in this state—over Melvin E. Thompson, whom he has twice defeated for governor, but never by such a smashing margin as in the Senate race.

The popular vote count from 1,265 of the state's 1,706 precincts gave Talmadge 372,907, Thompson 105,907.

CAMPAIGN TO OPEN TONIGHT

By JAMES DEVLIN

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—Adlai Stevenson "formally" opens his campaign for the presidency tonight with a $280,000 speech.

The Democratic nominee will speak to a nationwide audience over all possible networks — three television and four radio — in a "saturation" effort to develop what aides call "an important theme" in the campaign. They kept the precise subject secret.

Time of broadcast is 8:30 p.m., EST.

Stevenson's staff members said the cost of the aired speech would exceed $200,000. TV sources placed the figure at $280,000.

Files In Early

Stevenson flew into Harrisburg from New York early today so he could have ample time to put the finishing touches on the address in the privacy of Gov. George M. Leader's executive mansion.

He came by chartered plane with his running mate Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, Gov. Leader, staff members and newsmen.

Several hundred persons were on hand at Harrisburg State Airport to greet him when he landed at 1:10 a.m.

Girls On Hand

Two dozen girls in pale-blue "Stevenson" dresses — similar to the costume worn by girl supporters at the Democratic convention in Chicago — were among the newcomers.

Stevenson will deliver his address in the large arena of the State Farm Show Building at a $50-a-plate fund-raising dinner. Staff members said that 10,000 persons were expected to attend.

State Republican leaders have accused Pennsylvania Democrats of dunning persons into buying tickets for the dinner.

The eighth and last of a series of regional conferences Stevenson and Kefauver conducted on their coast-to-coast travels was held in New York yesterday.

Party Leaders Arrive

Party leaders from New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Maryland, Delaware, West Virginia and Washington, D.C., advised the national ticket that these were issues to stress:

1. The rising cost of living.
2. Unemployment in industrial areas such as Pennsylvania.
3. Farm problems.
4. The number of small business failures, and the difficulty small businessmen have in obtaining loans at interest rates they can afford.
5. The President's health.
6. Vice President Richard M. Nixon.
7. The "big business" Cabinet.

Other Advice

Stevenson and Kefauver further were advised to:

Press the theme that humanitarianism is needed in government, and to campaign on the ground as well as by airplane, so they could meet more voters and spark local campaign workers.

A number of the 200 party leaders at the session said that rising living costs were hitting every housewife.

"I heard yesterday from a housewife who paid 19 cents for a single tomato," commented George E. Brunner, New Jersey Democratic state chairman and Mayor of Camden.

Talks Of Unemployment.
"In 1952, Ike and Mamie talked to the American people about the cost of living. I'm asking them to come back on TV and talk about it again with the American housewife."

Gov. Leader said 300,000 residents of his state were unemployed when the Democratic state administration took office after the 1954 elections.

He said the state administration worked to attract new industry but that the Eisenhower administration "sabotaged" legislation aimed at alleviating unemployment in depressed areas.

Local VFW Auxiliary, Founded In 1945, Has Won Wide Civic Esteem With Varied Activities

Few small community clubs can claim literary distinction in addition to numerous and varied projects. The Ladies' Auxiliary of Gettysburg Post No. 15, Veterans of Foreign Wars, even managed to grab a foothold in the ranks of literature. "So intense was auxiliary enthusiasm at this time, says the VFW post history, that Mrs. Mary E. Kitzmiller was moved to write a poem in dedication to this post and to veterans generally." This poem has gained state and national recognition. Entitled "Veterans" the work reads as follows:

Perhaps your Bob or Ted or Jack
Answered the call of sneak attack
Perhaps it was the boy next door,
Who deemed this land worth fighting for.

Veterans of heat and mud and rain,
Death and disease and crying pain,
Veterans of hardship, bitter cold,
Of brave, heroic deeds untold.

True veterans of foreign wars,
Who gave protection to our shores,
Tried veterans who held our fate,
With too little, almost too late.

Proved veterans of foreign wars,
Returned again to native shores,
We, a Nation must not forget,
How much we owe the foreign Vet.

Organized In 1945
The auxiliary was organized and temporary officers were elected Monday night (June 11, 1945) with a total of 21 charter members at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde D. Berger, Carlisle St. Those who attended were chiefly mothers, wives and sisters of VFW men, according to The Gettysburg Times June 12, 1945. The objectives are "patriotic, fraternal, historical and educational." Officers elected temporarily that night were: Mrs. Clyde D. Berger, president; Miss Ethel Sanders, secretary; and Horace M. Bushman, treasurer.

At the time of the organization of the group invaluable assistance was offered by women of neighboring community auxiliaries. Members of the Hanover post who aided in establishing the Gettysburg and Adams county Ladies' Auxiliary were Mrs. Bertha M. Lau, state deputy chief of staff;

Mrs. Catherine Luckenbaugh, president, and Mrs. Myrtle Leonard, junior president. Those from York were: Mrs. Rhea McCloskey, department chaplain, and Mrs. Ellen Swartz, trustee.

Charter Members
Charter members, it was announced at that meeting, would be those persons enrolled within 90 days after the organizational meeting. But the first 21 charter members as of June 11, 1945 were: Miss Ethel M. Sanders, Mrs. Mary C. Berger, Miss Anna Mary Weikert, Mrs. Horace M. Bushman, Mrs. Sarah Orndorff, Mrs. Kenneth Tawney, Mrs. Lillian G. Enoch, Mrs. Maude D. Myers, Mrs. Frances Mumper, Miss Doris Jean Karas, Miss Treva Mae Keefer, Mrs. Dorothy R. Fry, Mrs. Anna Mae Galbraith, Mrs. Ruth M. Harness, Mrs. Zeila B. Watson, Mrs. Charlotte M. Snyder, Mrs. Grace M. Rose, Mrs. S. Swope, Mrs. J. J. Munley, Mrs. Mary A. Weikert and Miss Edith Weikert.

The date for the institution and installation of officers for the group was set for June 25, 1945.

According to The Gettysburg Times, Tuesday, June 26, 1945: "Mrs. Clyde D. Berger was elected and installed as president of the new group at a meeting Monday evening at the Karas store on North Stratton St."

Other Officers
Other officers installed were: second vice president, Mrs. Maude O. Myers; junior vice president, Anna Mary Weikert; secretary, Ethel Sanders; treasurer, Mrs. Merion Bushman; chaplain, Anna Galbraith; conductress, Louise Dickert; guard, Mrs. Zeila Watson; trustees, Mrs. Ruth M. Harness, Mrs. Clarence Wright and Mrs. Samuel Swope.

The following officers were appointed: patriotic instructor, Edith Weikert; historian, Mrs. Mary Kitzmiller; color bearers, Mrs. Mildred Kitzmiller, Mary Rife, Mrs. Loretta Newman and Doris Kitzmiller.

A Bible and colors for the drill team were cherished gifts presented to the auxiliary by neighboring auxiliary posts of Hanover and York. The auxiliary officers of the White Rose post, York, had charge of the meeting. Mrs. Bertha Lau, Hanover, department deputy who assisted the York post, presented Mrs. Berger with the Bible. The Hanover Auxiliary presented the Gettysburg chapter with the drill team colors.

One year after their formal organization and installation of officers the men of the VFW had this to say about the women's auxiliary: "In October, 1946, Post 15's Auxiliary was enjoying its highest peak of activity and co-operation with the post. During this time the ladies purchased furniture for the 'northwest lounge' and were at this time serving meals at the post home. The women also purchased a coffee maker to be used in the post home, then located on Carlisle St. Draperies were also furnished throughout the home by the auxiliary."

A luncheon to honor top officials of the national auxiliary was held March 28, 1953 at the Hotel Gettysburg. The person specifically feted at the affair was the national president, at that time Mrs. Doris Holm. The event marked the first time in the history of the local VFW Auxiliary that the local unit was honored by a visit from a National President.

During the ten years since its initiation the auxiliary has labored to aid local beneficial causes and has lent its cooperation to furthering local community projects.

Scotland School Aid
Aiding the maintenance of the Scotland School at nearby Scotland, Pa., near Chambersburg, is one of the primary endeavors of auxiliary members. Rummage sales and card parties have been an important source of funds for the helping the school.

On a national level the auxiliary supports the Orphans' Home in Eaton, Mich. The orphanage for orphans of servicemen, is sponsored solely by the VFW and their auxiliaries all over the country. An additional cottage for the orphanage, to be known as the Pennsylvania cottage, will be dedicated September 9 at Eaton. Three representatives from the local auxiliary will attend the dedication services. They are: Miss Beulah Furney, Mrs. Norman Myers and Mrs. Pearl Wiser.

The curing of the dread disease of cancer is a second primary interest of all VFW Auxiliaries. The Amelia Kane Cancer Clinic in Pittsburgh and its maintenance is a most worthy project about which all VFW auxiliaries are most concerned. Locally the Auxiliary contri-

BRITAIN, FRANCE PLAN ECONOMIC PRESS ON EGYPT

LONDON (AP)—Britain and France were reported agreed today on stiff economic pressure as the next move in their drive to get Egypt to accept international operation of the Suez Canal.

British Prime Minister Eden was expected to outline such a policy to the House of Commons in a speech opening two days of emergency debate on the canal crisis.

A Labor opposition motion to censure his Conservative government for its handling of that crisis also was expected. But the Conservatives, holding a majority of 65 over all other parties in Commons, were confident of beating any such effort to topple the government.

Eden and French Premier Guy Mollet finished two days of talks on the canal situation and announced determination "to resist, by all appropriate means, any arbitrary interference with rights" of all nations to use the 103-mile waterway.

Authorized British sources said Eden accepted Mollet's argument that the two countries should try to wear Egypt down with economic and technical pressure before making any move to take the dispute to the United Nations.

In Washington, President Eisenhower told his news conference he doubted this was "the exact time" for such an approach.

He also said Britain and France would be justified in taking "more forceful" steps in the canal crisis. But he declared he was "not going to be a party to aggression if it is humanly possible."

British and French leaders have spoken publicly of using military force as a last resort. Both countries have been concentrating troops on Cyprus, 230 miles north of the canal.

The well-informed London Daily Telegraph, which supports Eden's government, said the economic pressure would include diversion of British and French shipping from the Suez route.

This would cut Egypt's prospective profits from the canal. In announcing its nationalization July 26, Egyptian President Nasser said the plan was to use such profits to build a $1,300,000,000 high power-and-irrigation dam at Aswan on the Nile. His move came after the United States and Britain withdrew offers to help finance the dam.

Two days after the nationalization announcement, Britain countered by freezing all Egypt's sterling assets abroad, totaling about $36 million dollars. That virtually stopped British-Egyptian trade.

Ag Secretary May Get Prexy Office

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. (AP)—Sen. Jo Hays (D—Centre) reported Tuesday night he believes Dr. William L. Henning, state secretary of agriculture, is under consideration for the post of vice president of Pennsylvania State University.

Hays is a member of the Senate any appointment to the vice president's post would have to be made by the university's board of directors. Prior to being appointed secretary of agriculture in Gov. Leader's cabinet in 1954, Henning was associated with the university's Department of Animal Husbandry.

Henning is in California where he will attend a convention of state agriculture secretaries. The vice president post was left vacant by the appointment of Dr. Eric Walker to the presidency, succeeding Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Federal Communications Commission announced Wednesday it will not interfere with Western Union's announced plan to increase interstate press telegram rates by about 8.22 per cent.

This means the rates will go into effect on Friday, Sept. 14, along with higher service rates between the United States, Canada and Mexico.

These new press rates come on the heels of an increase averaging 9.6 per cent on general commercial service messages within the United States, which became effective Aug. 26.

The over-all increases are estimated to increase the Western Union Telegraph Co. revenues by about $10,283,000, after allowances for some shrinkage in patronage as a result of the higher charges.

Also on the problem will be a two-day discussion forum at the Allenberry Playhouse, Bolling Springs, and two visits to modern industrial plants.

PAUL R. BAIRD GETS NACA POST

Director of meetings Edward F. Smith of Gettysburg today announced the first meeting of the season will be held on Wednesday, September 19, at the Hotel Yorktowne, York.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department announced Tuesday that among nine speeches scheduled by Secretary Benson will be one Sept. 25 at a meeting of the Pennsylvania Millers' and Feed Dealers' Assn. in Reading, Pa.

Pilots Of Five Nations To Quit Suez Canal Jobs Friday

By TOM MASTERSON
CAIRO (AP)—A spokesman for foreign pilots and employees in the Suez Canal told Egypt Wednesday that British, French, Dutch, Norwegian and Italian pilots and employees wish to quit their jobs Friday night.

Egypt's Information Department announced the French chief of the Suez Canal navigation section, section, Paul Raymond, had informed Director Mahmoud Yunes of the employees decision.

An official Egyptian source immediately labeled this action "a conspiracy worked out beforehand to obstruct navigation in the Suez Canal."

Absence of pilots and foreign technicians would cripple operation of the canal.

The Western employees took their cue from the old Suez Canal Co. which is controlled by Britain and France.

The pilots wishing to quit representing nearly 100 of the 146 now estimated to be working on the 103-mile waterway.

The 146 is considered the absolute minimum needed to put the average of 40 to 45 ships through the canal in convoys daily. To do so, pilots have been working long hours and not taking their normal days off.

For maximum efficiency, the company and pilots admit 250 pilots are needed.

At the time of the nationalization of the canal company July 26, 205 pilots were on the payroll, but many of these were on leave and have not returned.

Need Long Training
Although the Egyptians have brought in 10 new foreign pilots recently, it still will require two to six months training before these new men are ready to take over.

Egyptian officials say they have appointed around 30 new Egyptian pilots. These also must undergo lengthy training.

In the event the walkout materializes, it appears certain the Egyptians will be able to take through a very limited number of ships. This will mean the canal, at least temporarily, will be turned into a bottleneck with a resulting diversion of most of the shipping around the Cape of Good Hope.

What action the Egyptians will take against individuals walking out remained to be seen. The original nationalization law threatened imprisonment for employees leaving the jobs. The Egyptians subsequently said any employees could leave if they give proper notice. Some Egyptians defined proper notice, however, as meaning the pilots would have to wait until they were replaced.

Scores of the pilots had their bags packed.

ESTES GOING TO TELL THE TRUTH

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Estes Kefauver, the Democratic vice presidential candidate, will embark Friday on a 15-state "truth-telling" campaign swing, it was announced today.

James A. Finnegan, campaign director for the Adlai Stevenson-Kefauver ticket, said the American people "are entitled to know the truth about the sorry performance in office of the special interest Eisenhower-Nixon administration."

Kefauver, Finnegan said, "will tell it to them on the main streets of America."

Lauding the Tennessee senator as "one of the most formidable campaigners in many decades," Finnegan said Kefauver would carry his fight to "a record-breaking number of counties, cities and towns between now and election day," Nov. 6.

During the first two-week offensive, Kefauver is scheduled to visit Florida, Ohio, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Montana, Oregon, Washington, North and South Dakota, Michigan, Kentucky, Indiana, Illinois, Pennsylvania and West Virginia.

Scheduled is a Sept. 26 stop in Pennsylvania.

NEW ATTACKS BY STEVENSON ON IKE AND DICK

By JAMES DEVLIN

NEW YORK (AP)—Adlai Stevenson's campaign fire was broadened today to include an attack on the "new" Vice President Nixon along with a blast at President Eisenhower's civil rights position.

The Democratic presidential nominee accused Eisenhower of failing to lend the prestige of his office to Southern governors and other officials upholding segregation laws "sometimes even against their own personal feelings, sometimes in the face of violence."

He said Nixon was presenting a "new face" and "you have to be awed by the lack of conviction which makes so swift a transformation possible."

Encouraged By Maine
Stevenson, meanwhile, plunged into a conference with party leaders from New York, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Delaware, West Virginia and Washington, D.C.

This was the eighth and last of his eight regional "grass roots" meetings across the country as a preliminary to the formal opening of his campaign with a nationally televised speech tomorrow night in Harrisburg, Pa.

Stevenson was encouraged by an analysis by his staff of Maine's election figures.

James A. Finnegan, his campaign manager, said the Republicans never had won the White House unless they obtained 60 per cent of the Maine November vote—and that the GOP garnered out 51.4 per cent of the congressional vote there Monday.

Finnegan said the Democratic congressional vote in Maine jumped more than 50 per cent over that in 1952 and that this constituted "one of the greatest increases ever recorded in any state, let alone a normally Republican one like Maine."

He said the re-election of Democratic Gov. Edmund Muskie and the congressional election results reflected "dissatisfaction with the Republican record under President Eisenhower."

Gets 2nd Nominations
Stevenson's attacks on Eisenhower and Nixon were delivered amid frequent applause Tuesday in a speech accepting a second presidential nomination—that of New York state's Liberal party, good for more than 400,000 votes in 1952.

Stevenson said, "I disagree with the position taken last week by the President when he said of the Supreme Court (desegregation) decision: 'I think it makes no difference whether or not I endorse it.'"

"I think for myself," said Stevenson, "that the attitude of the President, who is our only official elected by all the people, does make a difference to those struggling with the day-to-day conflicts of new laws and old customs in a changing society."

Prefers "Joe"
"I count it the responsibility of the chief executive to do all in his power to create a climate of compliance with the law, and to encourage with the immense prestige of this office those who are earnestly trying, often in difficult circumstances, to comply with the court's decision."

In declaring Nixon is wearing a "new face," Stevenson said: "I am compelled to confess that I still prefer Joe Smith."

The first meeting of the North Adams Jointure PTA was held on Monday night at the high school with the president, Mrs. Nettie Bowers, presiding. The program included: Invocations by the Rev. Norman L. Bortner; Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag, reading of minutes by the secretary, Mrs. Ralph Hikes, treasurer's and auditor's reports by the treasurer, Mrs. June Leer. Harry Pasick showed a film on Civil Defense. Acting Supervising Principal Amos D. Meyers explained the jointure's elementary gling with the day-to-day conflicts of new laws and old customs in a changing society.

The WCTU will meet at the home of the president, Mrs. Edgar Leer, set-up and reported on the progress on the new high school. After the meeting adjourned, Mr. Meyers conducted a tour through the high school and the cafeteria, where refreshments were served by the PTA officers.

An executive meeting of the PTA will be held on Monday night at 8 o'clock at the high school. All officers and committee members are urged to be present.

Mrs. Reynolds Helman returned to her home. After being discharged as a patient from the Carlisle Hospital she was taken to the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Delhi, Bolling Springs, for several weeks.

The descendants of the late George O. and Annie C. (Albert) Trostle held a reunion on Sunday at the Mechanicsburg Park. There were 63 direct descendants present. Gifts were presented to the eldest member, Mrs. Elsie Trostle Hoffman; to the youngest, Pamela Trostle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Trostle, who is a great-grandchild, and to Jerry Trostle and family, who had come the longest distance. Living children of the above named couple are Mrs. Elsie Hoffman and Harry E. Trostle, York Springs; Edgar Trostle, Dillsburg, and Jerry Trostle, Johnstown. Members were present from Johnstown, Huntingdon, Baltimore, Philadelphia, York, Lemoyne, Shiloh, Mechanicsburg, Dillsburg and York Springs.

The WCTU will meet at the home of the president, Mrs. Edgar Leer, this Friday evening at 8 o'clock. The officers urge all members to attend to help lay plans for the coming year.

The Rev. Robert Knechel and Mrs. Edgar Leer took the latter's son-in-law, Dr. Paul Petcher, and family to Hoboken, N. J., Tuesday aweek. They sailed for London on the Nieuw Amsterdam, expecting to arrive in London Tuesday of this week. After a five-day stay in London they will fly from there to Nigeria, where they expect to be for four years. Christine is six months old.

PRINT QUOTES FROM SPEECHES OF DEMOCRATS

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Republicans started distributing to campaign speakers and workers today a compilation of quotes from Adlai Stevenson, Estes Kefauver and Harry S. Truman which the GOP said "Democrats would prefer to forget."

The eight-page typed document recalls some of the things Stevenson and Kefauver, now running mates, said about one another as opponents during primary contests earlier this year, and some things Truman said about both.

Chairman Leonard W. Hall of the Republican National Committee said copies will go to GOP speakers, candidates for office, state and local party chairman and workers, and he added:

"No Republican need say anything more about these three top Democrats than they themselves have already said."

"We have the most authoritative opinion of Adlai Stevenson from the two men in America who should know him best... Sen. Kefauver said Stevenson was guilty of 'mud slinging, race baiting and weasel wording.' And Mr. Truman said 'He can't win.'"

"The voters will now be in a

Wears Key Piece Of Evidence Into Court

NORRISTOWN, Pa. (AP)—The shirt he was wearing in court proved to be a key piece of evidence in Samuel Mars' trial on a burglary charge.

He denied in Montgomery County Court that he was in the Collegeville vicinity the day on which $35 was stolen from a house there. But Miss Edna DeAngelis said Mars had been to her home that day seeking work and she had given him a shirt. She was sure it was Mars, she testified, because he was wearing that same shirt in the courtroom.

A verdict of guilty was returned a few minutes later.
